THAW'S LAWYERS WILL SUBMIT TO DEPORTATION

Habeas Corpus Proceedings Postponed Until Next Wednesday.

Until That Time Prisoner Must Remain in Jail at Sherbrooke.

NEW YORK WANTS THE FUGITIVE

New York Authorities and Dominion Immigration Officers Protest Against Latest Developments, But Powerless.

Sherebrook, Que., Aug. 21.—Until Wednesday of next week, barring unforeseen developments, Harry Kendall Thaw will remain in the Sherbrooke jail. On that day he is to be arraigned in the Superior Court on a writ of habeas corpus. Between now and that time his battery of Canadian lawyers hope to perfect plans not to thwart deportation, but to submit to it gracefully—to a point selected by Thaw.

This, in brief, was the status tonight of Matteawan's fugitive, arrested on Tuesday near Coaticook, Quebec, and committed to jail here on a defective warrant. Ignorant of the moves made by his lawyers, Thaw has spent his time pacing the length of the narrow corridor in the Sherbrooke jail, and was not even aware that the writ of habeas corpus in his case was served on the jailor this afternoon and that but for a timely telephone message he would have been produced in court today with the bench vacant. This incident, variously described as a blunder, a case of absent-mindedness and an error due to hurry, arose after Superior Judge Globensky failed to specify in writing that the writ was returnable before him next Wednesday. He had set this date in chambers, but the writ reading "instanter" (when served on the jailer) set that official into instant action; and he had called a carriage and ordered Thaw to dress for an outing when a telephone message from the judge informed him that the latter was leaving for Montreal not to return here as a circuit until next week.

Meanwhile District Attorney Conger, of Dutchess county, New York; Deputy Attorney General Franklin Kennedy, of Albany, and other primarily interested in getting Stanford White's slayer across the border, seized on the possibility of Thaw's immediate production and sought to find another judge before whom to arraign him. But Mr. LaForce, Governor of the jail, declined to surrender the prisoner until he had consulted Sheriff Aylmer.

The sheriff, after reading the writ carefully, said that while no time for its return was stated, he had understood from the court that Wednesday was the day and he "allowed" that Thaw had better stay in jail.

Rumors sprouted meanwhile that the New York authorities were trying to kidnap Thaw, that an automobile was ready to whirl him to the New York line, that an open clash, perhaps in street battle, was imminent. As a matter of fact, the officers from New York, were as much surprised as any one. They had protested against postponing the proceedings until Wednesday, but their protests failing, had decided to bide their time, hoping that when arraigned Thaw would be released as a fugitive and promptly snapped up by the immigration authorities as an undesirable.

The Governor of the jail explaining his difficulties tonight said:

"Some one representing himself to be Judge Glohensky called me on the telephone this afternoon and said Thaw would not need to appear in court before Wednesday. It was not entirely settled as to the time, because I thought he said something about tomorrow. As a matter of fact, I rather doubted that it was Judge Globensky.

"I was confused, particularly when I received another call. This time it was from a man who told me to 'get under cover because something was going to happen.'

"Half an hour later the bailiff appeared and served the habeas corpus papers on me saying that I was to deliver Thaw immediately. I was as near bewildered then as I ever have been in my life. Within half an hour I had been told to produce him Wednesday, tomorrow and immediately.

"I found a crowd outside and there were rumors that the prisoner was going to be taken away. But, of course, these were untrue and I finally straightened matters out by consultation with the sheriff."

Thaw's Attorneys Optimistic.

Thaw's lawyers said tonight they were well satisfied with the events of today. They feel now that Thaw's fate, so far as the Canadian authorities may influence it, is practically setled. The departure for Ottawa early this morning of W. L. Shurtleff was the first step in a plan to procure Thaw's removal from Canada without prolonged legal proceedings.

All of the lawyers profess to believe that the Minister of the Interior will accede to the request that Thaw be permitted to nominate his destination in return for submitting without further protest to deportation.

Those who are advising Thaw, among them some of the ablest criminal lawyers in Canada, said tonight that they were confident the government will welcome such a solution of the problem. No one contends that Thaw has violated a single law of the Dominion, unless it be that law which provides that no alien may enter Canada without special permit in five years after he has been an inmate of an asylum for the insane.

In the event that such an alien has entered by railroad the law, it is un-

SWIFT WORK ON TARIFF BILL

Republicans Tire in Fruitless Opposition to the Schedules—Fight on Free Raw Wool Postponed Until Today.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Republican Senators gave evidence today of tiring over continued fruitless opposition to the tariff schedules and rapid progress was made in consideration of the bill, the fight on free raw wool having been postponed until tomorrow.

The flax and silk schedules were approved as amended by the Finance Committee, and the Democratic caucus. Senators McCumber and Gronna ineffectually sought to transfer flax from the free to the dutiable list. To the silk schedule which gave the Finance committee much trouble, having been entirely re-written with specific duties substituted for the House ad valorem rates in most instances, not an amendment was offered today nor a criticism made by a minority member.

One paragraph relating to woven fabrics in the piece at 45 per cent. ad valorem was passed over at the request of Chairman Simmons for revision. The schedule was disposed of in fifteen minutes.

Consideration of the paper schedule was begun but the paragraph relating to printpaper and the proposed countervailing duty on paper valued at more than two and one-half cents per pound, was passed over at the request of Senator Lodge until tomorrow.

When the paper schedule is disposed o ftomorrow, Senator Simmons will call up the wool schedule, expecting a vote on free raw wool before adjournment for the day. The schedule was dismissed in general debate today, Senator Pittman, of Nevada, a wool growing State, expressing his approval of free wool and averring it was for the best interests of the wool producers of his State. Substitutes for the wool schedule have been submitted by Senators Smoot and Penrose and a third substitute has been prepared by Senator LaFollette.

Besides paper and wool, the sundries schedule and the free list remain to be considered. Then will come the income tax, cotton futures tax and administrative features.

Senators today, pleased at the progress made, expressed hope that a vote on the bill in the Senate might be taken by September 15th if not earlier.

DIGGS AWAITING SENTENCE.

Court Now Turns Its Attention to His Companion, Caminetti.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—With Maury I. Diggs convicted and awaiting sentence for havingg violated the Mann White Slave act in transporting Marsha Warrington from Sacramento, Cal., to Reno, Nev., for immoral purposes the government turned its attention today to Diggs' companion in flight, F. Drew Caminetti, indicted for the same offence for having taken Lola Norris on the excursion to Reno.

Diggs, who was visibly shaken by the jury's verdict last night, was released at midnight on $20,000 bail, furnished by hi sfather, I. P. Diggs, his uncle, Marshall Diggs. He will be sentenced to the penitentiary on September 2d. Five years is the maximum penalty.

When United States District Attorney John L. McNab (resigned) brought the Diggs-Caminetti cases into national prominence by accusing the attoreny generals' officer of having delaye dthe trial for political reasons, Commissioner General of Immigration Maminetti figured in the explanation of the delay. His chief, Secretary of Labor Wilson, stated that he had requested that the cases be put off until Commissioner Caminetti, who was eager to return to San Francisco from Washington to aid his son, could familiarize himself with his duties.

The testimony in the Caminetti trial is expected to follow closely that adduced for and against Diggs.

SULZER AND GLYNN WORK ON THAW CASE

Both Claimants for Governorship Spent Busy Day.

SULZER TELEGRAPHS BRYAN

Both Men Who Claim Executive Power in New York State Send Messages to Washington Officials.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Both the men who claim to be New York State's chief executive, were busy on the Thaw case today, and there was much telegraphing and telephoning.

Governor Sulzer late today made his initial move in the matter, so far as he has disclosed when he telegraphed Secretary of State Bryan at Washington asking that the American consul general at Ottawa advise the Canadian authorities to return Thaw to the jurisdiction of this State at Rouses Point, N. Y.

This was Governor Sulzer's message:

"Please instruct Consul General at Ottawa to request Minister in charge of Immigration to advise local immigration officers at Sherbrooke to return Harry K. Thaw, an escaped lunatic, to the United States at Rouses Point, N. Y.

(Signed) "WILLIAM SULZER,"
"Governor."

Several hours previously Acting Governor Glynn, conjointly with Attorney General Carmody, sent a telegram in duplicate to Mr. Bryan and to the Federal Secretary of Commerce requesting them "in the name of the State of New York" to "ask Canadian immigration authorities to deport Harry K. Thaw to the State of New York."

The telegram emphasizes the importance of haste.

Mr. Glynn's activities for the day in the Thaw matter began at 2 o'clock in the morning, when he was routed from bed by a dispatch from District Attorney Conger to Dutchess county at Sherbrooke, Canada, saying Mr. Congers had been in communication with Immigration Commissioner W. D. Scott, of Ottawa, and believed the Canadian authorities would send Thaw to some point in this State. Later Mr. Conger telegraphed that the Canadian authorities apparently had changed their minds and seemed to be disposed to put the fugitive over the border in Vermont, if they decided to return him at all.

There also was an exchange of telegrams between Mr. Glynn and Commissioner Scott and Fred C. Blair, supervisor of the immigration bureau at Ottawa.

Superintendent Blair informed Mr. Glynn by telephone that he could do nothing until the courts had taken action, but that his department would use every effort to have Thaw returned direct to New York State. Later the following telegram was received from Commissioner Scott by Attorney General Carmody, who also had been in direct communication with him:

"Extradition proceedings in Thaw case now before court. This department cannot deal with him until court has decided in extradition application. Will advise you our action immediately the case is dealt with by our officers."

Mr. Glynn was visibly disappointed when informed that dispatches from Canada announced that Thaw's attorneys were successful in deferring the court hearing until Wednesday, also that Washington dispatches represented the Federal officials as being in doubt respecting the proper steps for them to take.

Bryan Responds to Glynn.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Without authority to make a formal request in the name of the United States Government for the delivery of Harry K. Thaw by the Canadian authorities, Secretary Bryan late today responded to Acting Secretary Glynn's appeal for assistance in the effort to bring the Matteawan fugitive back into New York by sending the following personal telegrams to the British ambassador, Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice, now at Dublin New Hampshire.

"We are informed that Harry K. Thaw, who lately escaped from an insane asylum in New York in which he was confined after acquittal of murder on the ground of insanity, is in custody in the province of Quebec with a view to his deportation under the Canadian immigration laws. The Department, while not in a position to make a request in the matter, which in its present aspect is not within our extradition treaties, brings it to your notice with a view to such action as the Canadian authorities may find themselves justified in taking."

Copies of the acting Governor's message to Mr. Bryan were turned over to the bureau of immigration, but in official circles it was believed tonight there would be no further action on the part of the Federal authorities. The immigration bureau deals only with aliens and the State Department can do nothing in the absence of grounds for seeking Thaw's extradition.

The Sulzer message had not reached the State Department at the closing hour today, and copies of Secretary Bryan's telegram to the ambassador were forwarded only to Acting Governor Glynn and Attorney General Carmody.

Bryan True Diplomat.

Secretary Bryan carefully avoided taking any part in New York's controversy over the Governorship, addressing the letter to "Martin H. Glynn, State Capitol, Albany, N. Y."

While Mr. Sulzer's telegram had not been formally laid tonight before Secretary Bryan tomorrow a copy of the telegram sent to Ambassador

BANKS TO PROTEST THE CURRENCY BILL

Material Changes in Glass-Owen Measure to be Advocated.

A CONFERENCE AT CHICAGO

Bill, if Passed, Will "Cripple the Banking System" and Project It "Into Politics" Declares Prominent Financier.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Protest against the administration currency bill is expected to be the result of a conference of bankers from all over the country which will begin here today. Amendments probably will be recommended to eliminate some of the features of the Glass-Owen bill now pending in Congress.

More than 250 bankers are expected to attend the conference. Among them will be members of the Currency Commission of the American Bankers' Association, presidents of the various State bankers' associations, presidents of banks representing clearing houses, and other representative bankers. The conference is to be under the auspices of the bankers' currency commission, which has invited the financiers of the country to come together to unite on a plan of action concerning the proposed currency bill.

A large delegation of Eastern bankers, and a number of Western bankers, who have been in Washington conferring with Secretary McAdoo, are expected here for the meetings. A. B. Hepburn, of New York, head of the commission; Col. Frederick E. Farnsworth, of New York, secretary; William Woodward, president Hanover National Bank, New York, representing New York, and George M. Reynolds, of Chicago, are among the prominent financiers expected to take part in the meetings.

The Main Objections.

The principal objections of the bankers to the bill as it stands were stated today by Charles G. Dawes, delegated to represent the Chicago Clearing House Association, to be the Federal reserve board members that would be appointed by the President.

"If this bill is passed, our banking system will be projected again into politics," said Mr. Dawes. "The great system of National banks is part of the fabric of business. No greater calamity could come than an alleged measure of reform which would cripple the banking system. It is dangerous to tamper with it. Capital must awake now to the menace and not defer action until it is too late."

Congressmen Consider Bill.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Both the House Democratic caucus and the conference of Democratic members of the Senate committee on Banking and Currency considered the Administration currency bill today.

One minor amendment was voted into the bill in the caucus, which adjourned until tomorrow with the Neely amendment to prohibit any man from being a director of more than one bank, pending. Representative Wingo, of Arkansas, declared at the close of the session that if the caucus should vote down the interlocking directorate prohibition amendment, it would furnish the Republicans with campaign material for a charge that the Democratic party had surrendered to Cleveland H. Dodge, and Cyrus McCormick, who had made heavy contributions to the Wilson campaign fund.

There was no real test of so-called insurgent strength at any time today but all important amendments proposed were voted down overwhelmingly, the vote in one case being 21 to 103.

Chairman Owen, of the Senate Banking committee, issued a formal statement today, reiterating that impressions that he was opposed to the administration currency bill were "without foundation", and declared himself in favor of the measure.

"It would be stupid to say that it is impossible to improve it in any particular. I expect to do my utmost to help pass it," he added.

WILSON PREPARING A SPECIAL MESSAGE

Contains Details of Negotiations With Huerta Government.

Will Probably Read Document to Congress on Monday.

WILL EXPLAIN THE SITUATION

President Thinks Reading the Address Publicly Will Lay America's Views and Huerta's Contentions Before the People.

Washington, Aug. 21.—President Wilson was at work tonight on a special message which he probably will read to both Houses of Congress next Monday relating in detail the negotiations which have been conducted through his personal representative John Lind, with the Huerta Government in Mexico.

The decision to make a comprehensive statement on the situation to Congress, was reached today after the President had about concluded that the negotiations between Mr. Lind and Provisional President Huerta, since the exchange of notes, had developed no new basis for discussion.

With his message the President will present the two notes setting forth the American suggestions to the Huerta Government, and its reply. Should he read the document himself, which he is being urged to do by members of his cabinet and to which idea he is strongly inclined it will be the first time since the days of George Washington that a President has communicated a matter of foreign policy in person to the executive branch of the Government.

While there was no information from the White House to indicate what object it was hoped to accomplish through a message at this time, theer was a well defined belief in official circles that President Wilson thinks the reading of the address which will lay the American viewpoint and the Huerta contentions before the Congress and the people of this country, and which also will be made public to the world generally, cannot but have an important effect on the situation in Mexico.

It is expected to be a partial answer to the intimations of Provisional President Huerta in his note that President Wilson stands alone in his

MONEY FOR CROP MOVEMENT

Wilmington Will Share $1,500,000 With Raleigh, Greensboro and Charlotte—Mr. Sprunt Agent for Funds.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Williams made the positive statement to Senator Overman and Representative Webb today that Wilmington, Raleigh, Greensboro and Charlotte would get their proportion of the government money which is to be loaned for the movement of crops.

It is understood that about $1,500,000 will be placed in the four cities above mentioned. It was explained that it is the intention of the government to allow all banks to have a share of the money, but that only four cities in North Carolina will receive the money direct from the Treasury Department. Other banks who desire the use of the loan can obtain it at a reasonable rate of interest from the four cities designated.

It is probable that James Sprunt, of Wilmington, will be asked to act as the government's agent at the seaport town and that Caesar Cone will serve in a like capacity at Greensboro. The plan is, it is understood, to name a man in each city, not identified with a National bank, to act as agent for the government. P. R. A.

EXPLOSIVE FOUND NEAR CITY HALL

HIS HONOR UNPERTURBED

Deadly Charge Would Have Wrecked Entire Building—Was Discovered by a Passing Citizen. Investigating.

New York, Aug. 21.—A deadly charge of dynamite, three whole 10-inch sticks and two halves with a fuse and detonator, was discovered this afternoon near Mayor Gaynor's office windows in the city hall. The bureau of combustibles found that the explosive was 40 per cent dynamite, the regulation blasting proportion, and the amount found would, if exploded, have wrecked the city hall.

The mayor was in his office when the dynamite was discovered by a citizen passing through City Hall Park. Mr. Gaynor evinced little interest when told of the explosive's proximity and remained apparently undisturbed at his desk while police officers hurriedly drew a cordon about the dynamite to keep back an excited crowd.

The dynamite found today, lay on a basement door in a concrete moat or area-way within 60 feet of the mayor's window.

The explosive was arranged in a lattice formation with two small pieces on top. A partly burned four-inch fuse, made of gunpowder tightly rolled in a paper cylinder, ledt to a detonating cap on one of the half sticks.

Close to the explosive was a piece of Chinese punk and several partly burned matches. The dynamite and fuse was wrapped in a piece of heavy cambric secured by red and blue twine. The cloth was blue with red and white figures and resembled the fillets worn by Italian women of the working class.

Experts of the bureau of combustibles state that the only thing which prevented a disastrous explosion was the presence of a strip of cotton wool wound so tightly about the base of the fuse that a spark could not reach the detonator. An edge of one dynamite stick was slightly scorched.

The investigators do not attach much importance to the finding of half burned matches and a partly consumed cigar near the explosive. Hundreds of smokers pass the area-way during the noon hour, and some of them occasionally throw dead matches and cigar butts there.

CONFIRM NOMINATION.

Thomas Fox to Become Postmaster at Sacramento.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The Senate Postoffice committee late today recommended to the Senate in executive session that the nomination of Thomas Fox as postmaster at Sacramento, Cal., be confirmed.

Rudolph Spreckles had made a strenuous fight against Fox's confirmation, attacking him as a "boss," and tool of the Southern Pacific railroad. He will carry the fight to the floor of the Senate.

A positive denial was made today by Immigration Commissioner Caminetti that he recommended Thomas Fox for postmaster at Sacramento in return for Fox's influence in behalf of his son, charged with violation of the white slave law. Caminetti's statement was made to the Senate Postoffice committee at a continuation of yesterday's hearing.

"The intimation that I endorsed Fox to secure his influence in my son's trial is evidence of a diseased imagination," declared Mr. Caminetti.

Mr. Caminetti told the committee, Fox had a reputation for sobriety, honesty and good citizenship and denied he ever heard Fox was a tool of the Southern Pacific or was supported in his fight by the "red light" district, or the saloons.

SENDS RECORDS TO NEW YORK.

North Carolina Furnishes Holden and Furches Impeachment Papers.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 21.—North Carolina has shipped from her library to Albany, N. Y., the impeachment records of January and February, of 1871, when Governor William Holden was convicted and retired from the Governorship.

New York's library called for these records to be used in the trial of Governor Sulzer. The charges against Governor Holden were his having declared Caswell and Alamance counties insurrectionary and placed them under martial law, also with having refused to recognize the writ of habeas corpus applied for by men alleged to be members of the Ku Klux. During the trial Tod R. Caldwell, lieutenant governor, was governor.

The New York authorities were also sent the impeachment proceedings against Chief Justice Furches, and Associate Justice Montgomery in 1901. The judges were acquitted.

FIRE ON STEAM YACHT.

Destroys Vessel, Spreading to Buildings on Nearby Island.

Lake George, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Fire which originated today on the steam yacht Pocahontas, owned by George Foster Peabody, the New York banker, spread to two nearby islands, and destroyed the servants' quarters at Triuna, Mrs. Spencer Trask's Summer home, and a number of other buildings. The yacht, two gasoline boats and four row boats were destroyed.

Mrs. Trask, authoress, and widow of Spencer Trask, bankers, was seriously ill in her home. She was taken in a launch to the home of Mr. Peabody, where she is now in a critical condition.

Matty held the Cubs to eight hits, while the Giants fattened their averages by an even dozen safeties.

The Pirates attacked the good ship Philly, manned by Capt. Dooin and his group of hearties, and came off the victor in a hard fought engagement. The Pirates made fourteen hits, which totaled up 28 bases, or an average of two bases to the hit, while the Philadelphians from thirteen hits crossed the plate a half dozen times to the Pirates nine.

Ed Walsh's Arm Now in Shape

Cleveland, Aug. 21.—Ed Walsh, White Sox pitcher, thinks he will be as good as ever next season. He attended the Cleveland-Washington game Tuesday and was in good spirits. He had just returned from Youngstown, O., where he was treated by "Bonesetter" Reese. His trouble has been caused by a misplaced tendon in his right elbow and shoulder. Reese replaced the tendon in less than five minutes. Walsh was assured, he said, that his arm would become as stout as ever.

Paskert and Walsh Out of The Game

Philadelphia, Aug. 21.—Paskert and Walsh, of the Philadelphia National League club are out of the game for a time with injuries. An X-ray examination today showed that Paskert had broken a finger of his right hand in catching a drive of Schulte's bat yesterday and that Walsh had suffered a broken bone in his foot when hit by a bat during practice.

Shortstop Bridwell, of the Chicago Nationals, was notified here today that he has been suspended for three days for throwing dirt toward Umpire O'Day, following a decision at the home plate in yesterday's game.

THREATENED LIFE.

of Congressman Johnson in Connection With "Loan Shark" Bill.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Represenative Ben Johnson of Kentucky, told the Lobby investigators today that the passage of the Federal "loan shark" law was marked with daily threats against his life. He introduced an affidavit by a former capitol policeman who swore that another former policeman claimed to have followed Johnson three nights to kill him.

Testimony has developed that the loan sharks fought the Federal law with a slush fund of $12,000. Representative J. T. McDermott, of Illinois, was charged by I. H. McMichael, a former House employee, with having claimed receiving $7,500.

Martin M. Mulhall late "lobbyist" for the National Association of Manufacturers, refreshed by a week's vacation, took the stand bfore the House ocmmittee again today. He repeated some of his testimony before the Senate Committee relative to efforts to control committees in Congress which dealt with labor legislation.

Representative Willis, of Ohio, questioned the witness sharply about his statements in regard to the make-up of the judiciary committee of the House in 1909-10. Mulhall swore that through the efforts of former Representative James E. Watson two men were taken from that committee and two others—Representatives Vreeland, of New York, and Representative Bannon, of Ohio given their places.

"The record shows," said Mr. Willis, "that Bannon went on that committee in 1900, and Mr. Vreeland never served on it while he was in Congress."

Mulhall said he might have been mistaken about the names or the dates, but he was sure the National Association of Manufacturers could control the selection of men on the committee.

CONNIE'S CRIPPLES WON

Ran Wild on the Paths and Defeated White Sox—Naps Dropped to Red Sox—Senators Won With Groom on Mound.

Connie Mack's corps of crippled climbers hit Benz, of the Chicago White Sox all over the lot yesterday, and the game by a 7 to 1 score. The Athletics, although they have been shot to pieces during the past week, found the winning easy against the White Sox and ran wild on the bases when their frequent clouts placed them on the circuit, Oldring and Collins featuring with their pacing.

The Cleveland Naps dropped a seven inning game to the Boston Red Sox, the first game the champions have won in five days. The game was called during the eighth inning on account of rain. James, for the Naps, allowed just nve hits, while Leonard, the Boston twirler, went him one better, with an even half dozen.

The Washington Nationals, with Bog Groom doing duty on the firing line, defeated the St. Louis Browns in their opener on the home grounds of the latter club. St. Louis had men on the bags on several occasions, and scores seemed inevitable, but Groom was invincible in such pinches, and his support was steady.

The Detroit-New York game was postponed on account of rain.

Connie's Cripples.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Connie Mack's crippled league leaders hit Pitcher Benz all over the field in the fourth and sixth innings and with some daring base running by Oldring and Collins defeated Chicago 7 to 1 today.

Fred Maisel Has the Speed Stuff

Chicago, Aug. 21.—"You have to pick men who can run bases fast and intelligently if you ever hope to make a battle in first division, and we have made a start with this Maisel," said Husk Chance. "I know that Zeider, too, has the stuff to aid in making a championship club, and if his bunion heals up he will deliver the goods. I was so much interested in him that I naturally felt pretty sore when Callahan turned him over to me with an O. K. Zeider will be a star yet, and Callahan will be sorry he let him go.

"Meantime, I have a likely lad in Maisel who has the speed required to hold down an infield job even though he is no great shakes at hitting. The Yankee infield looked better yesterday than at any time since I have had charge of the club. Peckinbaugh made a neat play off Chase, robbing him of a Cincinnati hit and killed a fast runner at third.

"You cannot put brains in a ball player, and Peck doesn't need anyone to tell him. He has an idea what to do with the ball when he gets it. Knight is a good man to touch a runner; he can go out or in for them, and if he can only keep up his hitting he will be a finished man at second.

"Williams shows up better than any of the new men so far. He is a quiet chap who does a lot of thinking, and he hasn't pulled one 'bone' yet. If this present infield keeps going, I have the foundation on which to build a club. We look so good just now that I expect to break better than even on the series, although I appreciate that it will take a lot of hustling."

STATE AMATEUR CHAMPIONS.

Games at Charlotte Next Week to Decide North Carolina Champions.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 21.—To decide who is entitled to the pennant as Amateur Baseball Champions of North Carolina, Red Springs, champions from the east, and Morganton, from the west, will meet in a series of games to be played on the League grounds, at Charlotte, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 28th, 29th, and 30th.

These games will be hotly contested, as pitchers representing both teams have refused offers from practically every club in the North Carolina League this season.

It is predicted that the largest crowds ever admitted to the League grounds in Charlotte will witness the games—especially the opener, as Jaynes, of Morganton, and Covington, of Red Springs, will be pitted against each other. Arrangements are being made for special rates over the different railroads entering Charlotte and side attractions are planned for the visitors.

Playing the Wall Street game and reforming politics at the same time is interesting, no doubt, but it has its drawbacks.—New York World.

CHANGE QUARTERS ANY TIME

Chief Justice Clark States His Court Can Occupy New State Building Any Time It is Ready.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 21.—Chief Justice Walter Clark has indicated to those State officers especially interested in the arrangements for remodeling the old Supreme Court building as their quarters, that he sees no reason why the court cannot move into the new building any time that it is ready without waiting for the conclusion of the Fall term in December, as it has been claimed it would be necessary to do. The Chief Justice has concluded that the court can move the library within possibly three days, between district arguments and that in this way delay in the remodeling of the old building and its occupancy by the Departments of Education, Corporation Commission, Insurance, Labor and Printing, and State board of health, can be avoided. It looks now like it will be possible to get the remodeling work in the old building under way within 30 days. This will include the construction of vaults, installation of an elevator and a general remodeling of the interior of the building.

Representatives to Exposition.

North Carolina is to have a very creditable representation at the National Exposition for Conservation at Knoxville to be in progress during the month of September. The following prominent North Carolinians have been especially commissioned by Governor Craig to represent the State: J. M. Forehand, Tyner; J. J. Laughinghouse, Greenville; G. W. Mitchell, Aulander; J. A. Evans, Ahoskie; J. E. Peterson, Goldsboro; William Dunn, Newbern; Ashley Horne, Clayton; W. A. Simpkins, Raleigh; Jno. S. Cunningham, Durham; A. L. French, Byrdsville; J. H. Currie, Fayetteville; J. A. Brown, Whiteville; H. B. Varner, Lexington; W. J. McLendon, Wadesboro; P. B. Beard, Salisbury; William Bledsoe, Gale; W. A. Grier, Dixie; J. R. Self, Lincolnton; R. P. Hayes, Asheville; W. J. Cocke, Asheville; Clarence Poe, Raleigh.

The Corporation Commission made an order today directing the Southern Railway Co. to stop trains Nos. 21 and 144 at Glen Raven, a growing station between Burlington and Elon College. There was a petition from the citizens of the section urging that they are being deprived by the Southern of both passenger and express service. The order is prepared by Commissioner Pell.

The Reynolds Bros.' Lumber Co., of Franklin, Macon county, is chartered with $50,000 capital authorized and $10,000 subscribed by Gordon E. Reynolds and others, for general lumber and timber land business. There is also a charter for the Roseman Improvement Co., of Roseman, N. C., capital $125,000 authorized and $1,000 subscribed by A. M. White and others.

King Snakes and Wharf Rats.

In order to rid his premises of wharf rats that have come to be very much of a plague in several sections of the city, Mr. B. C. Beckwith has turned loose three big king snakes that are allowed the run of his premises. He says the rats have completely disappeared and the snakes are perfectly harmless.

Indications are that a mail service will be put on the passenger trains of the Raleigh, Charlotte & Southern division of the Norfolk Southern, from Raleigh to Mt. Gilead, thereby providing a much needed improvement that will give people on this line mail 12 to 24 hours earlier than at present. The train that will carry the new service leaves Raleigh for Mt. Gilead at 4:10 P. M. daily. This road is being pushed as rapidly as possible on the Charlotte end and will then provide a short line and quick schedule from Raleigh to Charlotte that will be a big advantage to the people all along the line.

Collector of Internal Revenue J. W. Bailey has appointed B. F. Dixon a special deputy collector to serve for ten days as successor to W. G. Staples, who was dismissed by Collector Wheeler Martin just before Collector Bailey came in office. Dixon has charge of teh records of the South Carolina division until this is transferred to D. C. Haywood, the newly appointed collector for South Carolina.

Judge J. Crawford Biggs has returned from a meeting of the creditors of the Newton-McArthur Lumber Co., Elizabethtown, at which it was decided to continue the business under the direction of Judge Biggs as receiver, and build three additional miles of railroad to make accessible all of the thirty million feet of timber the company controls.

WINS $5,000 TROPHY.

Walter Cox, Driving Lady Grattan, Wins in Grand Circuit Races.

Salem, N. H., Aug. 21.—Walter Cox made one of the best drives of the year at the Grand Circuit meet, at Rockingham Park today, and won the "Granite State" valued at $5,000, with Lady Grattan. Reusens, from the Geers stable, had been counted a certain winner.

Lou McDonald out-stepped the field in the opening heat when Lady Grattan nipped him. Lady Grattan led all the way in the third heat. Reusens was running the last twenty yards but the judges placed him second. In the final heat Lady Grattan broke soon after getting the word and Reusens took the lead in the bac kstretch. In the last furlong however, Cox challenged Geers and fairly outraced him.

Tommy Murphy, of New York, never won a cheaper race than the pacing division of the American Horse Breeder Futurity with Tilly Tipton. Of the $3,000 the winner got $2,100, while Homer Baughman and Sila K. R., took $387.50 each.

Bonton had no trouble in winning first money in the 2:20 trot. Early, Jr., the Canadian Pacificer, won the free for all pace in which Braden Direct was favorite.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

Important Step Toward its Final Completion to be Taken Monday.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Another important step toward final completion of the Panama canal will be taken next Monday when preparations will be made to blow up the heavy earth dike, now the only barrier between the Miraflores locks and tidewater on the Pacific side, three miles away.

There will be nothing spectacular about the destruction of the dike. Its base will be perforated by a number of holes, heavily charged with dynamite, then for five days fresh water from one of the rivers in the canal zone will be turned into the canal prism, and when the water is near the level of the sea water on the other side the charge will be set off.

Two monster dredges, the Mole and Corozal, are waiting to attack the debris and in the course of two or three days will clear a channel through the dike sufficient to admit the dredges and vessels of 10 or 12 feet draft, as far as Miraflores locks. A month later a channel the full width of the canal prism, and deep enough to pass a battleship, will be completed.

After the destruction of the Miraflores dike there will remain only two such obstructions along the canal route, one at Gamboa, about one-third of the way through from the Atlantic, holding back the water from the Culebra cut, and one over which the railroad crosses at the Gatun locks.

UNDERHILL-TISDALE TRIAL.

State Insists on Verdict of Murder in First Degree.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 21.—The State insisted today it would ask for a verdict in first degree murder in the case against James Underhill, of Kinston, and Joe Tisdale, of Newbern, for the killing of Carlysle Heath two months ago.

A venire of 110 men had been summoned and difficulty in getting a jury was anticipated, but the last man was secured at 2 o'clock today and the case proceeded. Half a dozen leading lawyers of Kinston and Newbern comprised in counsel defense and prosecution. Underhill and Tisdale had been out on bond until yesterday, when the grand jury presented an indictment for first degree murder, and Judge Allen holding case not bailable, ordered incarceration.

The case has attracted especial interest owing to the prominence of Heath and of the defendant Underhill, whose victim was shot down in the dark in South Kinston. Underhill admitting firing shots about the time which might have struck Heath, but declared he was shooting at a negro. The case is expected to consume several days.

COLORED TEACHERS' PAY.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 21.—Colored teachers in Lenoir county raised the money to maintain a teachers' institute here during the coming two weeks. Dissatisfied with the biennial institute allowed them at the expense of the county, they decided to fit themselves for better work by paying for an extra term themselves. Joseph Kinsey, county superintendent, encouraged them by promising to direct the institute without compensation.

A distinguished visitor in Kinston today is Judge James B. Whitfield, of Tallahassee, Fla., a former North Carolinian. He is spending some time with kinsmen here. Judge Whitfield has had a successful career in public life in Florida, having served as probate judge, State treasurer and attorney general, and now is on the Supreme Court bench there.

PRES. TATE NAMES COMMITTEE

Wilmington Man One of Ten to Confer With Governor and State Council as to Freight Rate Adjustments.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

High Point, N. C., Aug. 21.—President Fred N. Tate, of the Just Freight Rate Association, announces his appointment of the following as the committee of ten to confer with Governor Craig and the Council of State relative to freight rate adjustments, the first four of whom are selected as rate experts:

J. C. Forester, Greensboro; J. L. Graham, Winston-Salem; W. S. Creighton, Charlotte; Jas. T. Ryan, High Point; T. S. Morrison, Asheville; A. K. Joy, Shelby; A. C. Jones, Gastonia; U. B. Blalock, Wadesboro; Joe Underwood, Fayetteville; J. F. Wray, Reidsville; Col. Alf A. Thompson, Raleigh; Geo. A. Norwood, Goldsboro; W. A. Pierce, Weldon; J. Allan Taylor, Wilmington; C. L. Ives, Newbern; E. M. Stevens, Elizabeth City.

In making the announcement of his committee, President Tate said:

"In accordance with the resolutions adopted at our meeting in Raleigh on Tuesday, August 12th, I have appointed these gentlemen to serve on the special committee, recommended at that time for the purpose of representing all sections and all important interests of the State in future freight rate negotiations or conferences.

"The object in selecting this committee is to secure data from all sections of the State relating to the discriminations on traffic, both inbound and outbound as the same affects the commercial and farming interests of our people.

"The cotton manufacturers, the furniture manufacturers, lumbermen, wholesale merchants and jobbers, farmers, retail merchants, coal dealers and general business interests of the State are represented on the committee, and each member of the committee is instructed to not only look after his particular section of the State, but to also secure data which will enable him to view the adjustment of this proposition broadly and in the interest of the entire State.

"With the appointment of these gentlemen acting in harmony with the Governor, the Council of State, the Corporation Commission, the special Legislative Freight Rate Commission, and the officers and advisory board of the Just Freight Rate Association, including the 75 or more county branches already formed, the proposition is certainly in safe hands and no matter what the final result may be, it cannot be said that any section or any interest of the State did not receive fair representation in the negotiations and settlement of the matter.

"I think it is not out of place to add that within the past week there has been a keener interest shown in this matter than at any time since the agitation began. The branch associations already formed have now gotten down to a splendid working basis and are raising their subscriptions and sending same in to the treasurer in a highly satisfactory manner. I am receiving frequent requests from the branch associations for instructions as to what else to do to help the cause along, and from the present indications I am of the opinion that when the Legislature convenes in special session, not a member of the House or Senate will be found indifferent to the cause of the people.

"Let me again appeal to our people to stand firm for our just cause and take advantage of every opportunity to aid in bringing to a speedy and successful conclusion the work which we have undertaken to accomplish under the leadership of our wise and courageous Governor."

Much Accomplished Toward "Pulling Missouri Out of the Mud."

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 21.—Sunset put an official end today to Governor Major's two "good road days" during which it is estimate d250,000 business men and farmers forsook their business and their farms and went to the highways to give their work that Missouri might receive impetus to become one of the leading good road states of the Union.

When the last man laid down his pick and shovel tonight it was estimated the work done had it been paid for would have amounted to $1,500,000.

As Governor Major bade the last of his workers stop work at Jefferson City, Governor Hodges, of Kansas, who has been helping Governor Major with the "job" grasped the Missouri executive's hand.

"It's over Governor, and I congratulate you; you and the State of Missouri," said he.

"And I thank you and the people of Kmsas for letting you come down to help us," responded Governor Major.

Governor Major was host at a dinner tonight for Governor Hodges. The Kansas executive will leave late tonight for Topeka, wheer it is announced he will issue a call for two general road days.

First it was Thaw's flight. Now it is Thaw's fight.

Why is it we don't do it when we ought to do it now?

Don't put your foot in it. Put both feet on it and keep in the game.

Well, it could be worse. The Venus de Milo style might become popular.

North Carolina's fuss freight rate fight will be kept up till something happens.

A great many newspapers think President Wilson is following out their advice.

It is remarkable how many Republican Congressmen are faithful to their Trust.

One reason why new-comers are desirable is because mossbacks are never homeseekers.

The man who believes in his town is worth a hundred of those who are busy finding fault.

The suffragettes have made a reply to Senator Tillman. He can have more fun with them by telling them that it is no answer.

Of course, it is not a disgrace to be called a pin head. If a pin didn't have a head it would never be able to hold its own.

Harry Thaw was crazy to think of going to Canada where the immigration laws are so strict that they can bar out every newcomer who is looked upon as an undesirable alien.

A young man may deserve credit, but if he doesn't get it from a cold, heartless and unappreciative mundane sphere he can get what he wants by saving his money till he needs it.

Methuselah lived to be 900 years of age, but we can see more in a day than he saw in a lifetime. That is one advantage we have over Methuselah. Another is that we are here and he isn't.

One more Winter will arrive on schedule time and still Wilmington has not built a tourist hotel and joined the fortunate circuit of Southern resorts for Northerners who flee from the biting cold of their climate.

Those who have money are always geting scared. When men get scared almost to death about their money that's a panic. Panics are caused by having money and getting scared about what might happen to it.

Shall we gather at the river or on the ocean strand, Where the breezes, bathing, yachting, fishing, verily are grand? Shall we linger at the seashore and see the waters blue, For they're bluest in September—a perfect azure hue.

When Harry Thaw faced the electric chair for slaying Stanford White, Evelyn threw her arms about his neck and exclaimed, "Never mind, Harry! I'll stick to you through thick and thin." Now she says he ought have been punished with death. Nobody can ever tell whether the words spoken indicate emotion or loyalty.

Good roads in New Hanover county have cheapened the farmer's haul, increased the value of his land, made accessible communities out of isolated localities, increased the assessed valuation in the county, and increased the desire of homeseekers to settle in the county. If good roads will do that in this county they will do the same in yours. Try it for the proof. A good road is one thing that costs something to begin with, but pays it all back in the end.

The difference between farmers is that one in the Nation's Garden Spot this season made $240 an acre on 25 acres of tobacco, planted peas as a second crop and made enough peavine hay to feed all the stock, cattle and hogs on the place for a year. Besides that, the peas restored his land with nitrogen and humus and it is better than the day he planted his tobacco. He has sold his tobacco, put his hay in the barn, and all hands are now gathering other crops and getting ready to pick cotton till Thanksgiving.

"STATE'S CLOSED WATER-GATE."

With the Charlotte Observer continuing to demand that Wilmington be uncorked for the good of the State as well as for the port of Wilmington, The Star hails it as an able assistant in this paper's continuous and persistent efforts to convince the entire State that a deep water port is what it needs and ought to insist upon having. The Observer again insists that Wilmington is too much "bottled up" for the good of the State, and that valued contemporary contributes these additional remarks on the subject:

"The Wilmington Star conveys the very gratifying assurance that Wilmington will fight for just freight rates with the rest of the State; and there have been recent evidences, which The Star cites, that Wilmington will. It is infinitely less to the point that a little deeper water there (which already exists at Southport, with rail connections) is emphasized as a means of relief. This is an excellent thing in itself and we pledge our continued best efforts in its behalf, but it scarcely touches the present problem at all. It ought to do so, we quite agree, and we do not doubt that after the results now sought are obtained it will. But so long as the railroads in pursuit of their discriminatory policy deliberately keep Wilmington bottled up, North Carolina's chief port might have a thousmd feet of water and remain of little service to its own immediate community or to North Carolina. That treatment represents the cork in the mouth of the bottle which is the entire State. We want Wilmington uncorked as an essential part of the work. How could New York's water facilities avail while goods are not permitted to leave the terminals for other points except loaded with purposely killing expense?"

To what extent Wilmington is bottled up, or in what particular it affects the trade of this immediate city, is a matter that will be made clearer after more careful investigation. As it is, water transportation is a decided advantage to Wilmington, and while it should be made of greater advantage, that depends as much upon the enterprise of the business men as it does upon the railroads. Wilmington can make its ocean transportation of greater advantage if it would and also if North Carolina points would insist on the advantage the port ought to be to them.

First and foremost Wilmington is North Carolina's port. This city is merely the depot o fthe State's ocean gateway, and it only has certain commercial advantages by reason of that fact. Charlotte and other North Carolina manufacturing and business points ought to receive proportionate advantages from the State's port, but they don't. Wilmington may be bottled up in some particulars as to her own opportunities, but the port certainly is bottled up almost completely so far as interior points like Charlotte are concerned. That and other interior cities do not get any water rates through Wilmington. They ought to be entitled to them under certain conditions. Whose fault is it that they do not get the advantage of or take advantage o fthe port? Is it the fault of the railroads, or partly the fault of the interior points and the railroads? The railroads can't get around their share of the blame, but the State and its interior points really don't know they have neglected their opportunities and actually have contributed to their failure to get the advantage of water transportation.

The interior cities have now gotten to the point where they fell the need of a port, and it brings up this question: Have they ever tried to get rates through Wilmington? Do they know that some rates they can get, would be greatly to their advantage? We know they don't, else they would take advantage of them in some notable ways that we are aware of. We doubt whether theer is a point in the State that could not take advantage of both export and import rates through Wilmington. Have they tried to get such rates?

It may as well be said that Wilmington is partly at fault for not increasing her commerce by letting interior points as far away as Charlotte, Atlanta and other cities know of their opportunities We have not fully realized our opportunities, else we would do it. We believe the time has about come when Wilmington and all the cities of North Carolina will realize that they have failed to take every advantage of this ocean gateway.

Till now the State has never fully realized its need of a deep water port, and we don't believe it has its eyes open yet. The State ought to have gotten a deep water port at Wilmington long ago, and all its interests are suffering because it didn't. It was looked upon as a local affair, but it has to realize the fact now or later that it is a State-wide affair just as Connecticut realized that New London was her port.

The Observer is right that under discrimination water a thousand feet deep would be of little service, but if there were deep water and ample steamship terminals and warehouses no railroad on the Continent could bottle up Wilmington so the State could not get the benefit. With 35 or 46 feet of water on the bar, a 30-foot channel to Wilmington, and ample terminals, North Carolina could not only use it as an argument for lowering rates, but she would have the physical means of helping herself. It would be a godsend to the State, and the railroads, too, even more so to the railroads than is this port today in its ability to draw nine-tenths of the local traffic done by the railroads right now. Do we realize that yet? Why can't we realize it now?

CANNOT CHECK BEEF PRICES.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce says Representative Oscar Underwood is of the opinion that the drought in the West will cause a great meat shortage, and, therefore, that the free meat and free cattle provisions in the pending tariff bill will give little relief to consumers this winter. Says the correspondent:

"The present lack of foreign supplies of meat and cattle, Mr. Underwood said, would prevent the new tariff from ameliorating the threatened meat famine. Ultimately, he said, the free meat, and free cattle clauses will reduce prices. Mr. Underwood pointed out that even with meat and cattle on the free list, there are no available supply sources at present. He said it was impossible for Canadian beef raisers to compete with those of this country because production costs are higher in Canada. Very little meat, he thought, could be imported from South America, because of small shipping facilities. If peace is restored in Mexico, Mr. Underwood said, the United States could look to that country for cheaper beef."

Talk of the meat famine, would sound like the bear side of the meat business, but the facts seem to be indisputable. At present, anyhow, the prospect is that the corn crop will fall 300,000,000 bushels short of an average crop. It is in the West, where the grain shortage will be felt, that we depend upon for beef, and with a short supply of corn with which to feed cattle, we can expect nothing but higher beef. Corn will be higher there and so will beef be higher as a consequence. It also means that every Southern farmer who has not produced his own corn, must pay higher prices for Western corn. Thus, the failure of the Western corn crop falls on us in two ways. It makes our bought corn cost more and it makes us pay higher prices for beef. That is because we are improvident and lack the foresight to raise our own corn and produce our own meats.

While we are told that we are on the verge of a meat famine Representative Kinkhead, of New Jersey, does not take the same view as Representative Underwood. Mr. Kinkhead is recognized as an opponent of the so-called beef trust, and it is his opinion that the trust is exaggerating reports of a prospective famine as a result of the drought in the West. Mr. Kinkhead says:

"The first threat of a meat famine emanated from Chicago, the headquarters of the beef trust. The packers put out the crop scare as the foundation of a campaign without excuse to raise prices this Fall and Winter. The crop scare is being used by the trust as an artificial argument for a boost in prices. I am endeavoring to bring about permission for the shipping of beef from Argentina, Australia and Canada to inspected houses in this country, under less severe restrictions."

Whatever may be the views of either Mr. Underwood or Mr. Kinkhead, the price of corn in the Chicago grain pit has advanced nearly 15 cents a bushel in the past three weeks. "The drought in the corn belt is the cause of the advance," says the market reports. Commerce and Finance, Mr. Theo. H. Price's excellent New York publication, says: "Doubtless, it has been exaggerated." Nevertheless, the Chicago market seems to have been affected by the report and has yielded to the pressure.

Corn, at an advance of 15 or 16 cents a bushel, will put up the price of beef, and whether the drought is greatly exaggerated or not, the point we wish to emphasize is that now is the South's time to grow corn and raise cattle hogs and stock. Let us do so, while there is nothing in sight but good prices. Let us do it in order to make ourselves independent so far as bread and meat are concerned.

THE MEN WHO ADVERTISE A CITY.

By advertising their own business certain live and enterprising men advertise their city as well. Wilmington has men who have made Wilmington famous by their business genius and far reaching enterprise. We have been several hundred miles away from Wilmington and have heard the names of certain firms mentioned as familiarly as if the speaking were done as near to us as Robeson county. The man with the scope to him, and who reaches out, is a standing advertisement for his city. The men who have a business and never let it be known, may know what they are doing but thousands of people right around them don't. There are some firms, however, who reach way across many counties and even invade other States with their business, and it is they who are helping to advertise and give reputation to their city. The Rock Hill Herald mentions two of that kind of men in its city, and that esteemed contemporary refers to them as follows:

"John G. Anderson and J. Edgar Poag have originated more first-class advertising for Rock Hill than any other two men in the city. Some of it has been advertising paid for in promoting their own business interests and some of it has been free advertising, which naturally results from the promotion of business interests which require extensive paid advertising. However, if John G. Anderson puts over that plant for manufacturing automobiles, Rock Hill will have every other town in the South beaten to a frazzle. It will be the best advertised place this side of the imaginary line which used to be spoken of so often by the old fashioned Southerner."

Mr. Anderson is the man who has made the Rock Hill buggy famous as far north as the Ohio, and if he makes automobiles he is bound to do the same. Mr. Poag is known to fame as the original man who "cuts the earth to suit," and sometimes Rock Hill is known as "the place where Edgar Poag lives."

There are others in Rock Hill, of course, and there is more than one man who makes Wilmington known. One Wilmington concern, the Fidelity Trust & Development Company, is soon to do an advertising stunt that will advertise Wilmington as well as its business of developing a magnificent suburban property. By making a small appropriation, the City of Wilmington is going to advertise wherever they advertise. They are going to do it by picture shows, lectures and slides, and thus it is that the enterprise of a Wilmington concern is to lead the city into a kind of publicity that may bring fine results.

North Carolinans are now bragging about making money out of every briar patch on the place. Even the banks of the branches and creeks have become an asset for the luscious blackberry that is gathered and shipped North by the carload. It all comes about because New York loves blackberries and is so close to us that consumers there can get them fresh. Transportation facilities make North Carolina land a cinch.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Remarks the Wilmington Star: "Harry Thaw's escape was sufficiently dramatic to entitle him to place in vaudeville." But Evelyn will hardly agree that he appear in an act with her.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The statement comes to us from reliable sources that the few counties in western North Carolina have issued three and a half million dollars in bonds for good roads and "are enjoying a season of unprecedented prosperity."—Florence Times.

From what we can gather from different sections of the county, the election to be held in Cumberland on September 9th, to vote on the question of a stock law for the whole county, will be carried by a large majority.—Fayetteville Observer.

The latest suburban development started around Charlotte will have lots 100 and 150 feet wide and 1,000 feet deep and is properly described, because of the liberal space, as suitable for raising fruit, garden truck, poultry and children.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Farmers are interested in watching some lands in this county that were dynamited for corn. In one instance it is said that the crop in one field was looking elegant and gave promise of a fine yield. It continued to present the same appearance, but now the stalks have practically no ears on them. If any are found they are small—mere nubbins. This is not claimed to be due to the use of dynamite, yet it is interesting some farmers who have been studying the question.—Greensboro Record.

Mr. Business Man there was $2,000,000 paid the planters of tobacco hereabouts that sold their crop here last year and the indications are that this year will see a considerably increased crop. Rocky Mount should do even better than that this year and they will if you and the rest of the business men will boost the local market. There is no better way to boost than to make friends with the men who market their crop here and to let them know that he has a lot of friends here and not quite a community of "foreigners."—Rocky Mount Telegram.

"THE DOVE OF PEACE."

Chairman Willard's View of Board of Health and Council Matters.

To the Editor of The Star:

As an example of the keen desire on the part of certain members of the City Council to persuade the dove of peace to hover between the City Hall and the Court House, yesterday's action of the Council went the limit.

After inviting the members of the Board of Health to attend a conference for the purpose of endeavoring to adjust differences, and after having the city attorney exhort the aforesaid members of the board in a soul-stirring deliverance on the beauties of harmony and the duty of brethren dwelling together in unity, and after the Board of Health at the request of the Council and in an effort to remove an apparent cause of friction had consented to continue certain street cleaning work, and after the members of the Board of Health had retired, possibly as far as the front door o fthe City Hall, Brother Wood brings out his resolution which all the time was safely tucked away somewhere, by which he calls the Board of Health all sorts of ugly names and petitions the Legislature to exterminate them at one fell swoop from the face of the statute books of North Carolina.

In spite of the pleadings of Councilman Loughlin and Chadwick he empties the contents of his oil can on the fire with the intrepid reply to Councilman Loughlin. 'Well it's on," (loud and long continued applause) and stands on to view the blaze. But his can only contain a bad sample of river water and the blaze sputters out.

The actual and convincing statistics upon which Brother Wood bases his opinion that the management of health matters should be turned over to him in order that expenses may be reduced and dissatisfaction removed are here presented for the light they throw on the subject.

They are as follows:

And next Councilman Merritt exclaims "We don't want harmony alone. We want more health." (Light and uncerain applause.) And I, for one, say for heaven's sake let him have it. Feed it to him with a spoon if he will take it better that way. But, dear reader, do you know Councilman Merritt when you see him? If he has as difficult a proposition to persuade the Legislature of the need of a new Board of Health as he will have to persuade the public of his need of "more health" the present board can rest easy.

But Councilman Merritt has statistics, too. He can prove, to his own satisfaction at least, that the Board of Health's budget is "top-heavy" whatever that may mean. The interesting and complete statistical table of Councilman Merritt may be added to Brother Wood's. It is as follows:

. . . . . .

. . . . . .

By combining these two thorough mathematical calculations we arrive at the following complete statement of the case:

| | Per cent. |
|---|---|
| Increased expense carried in the mind | 1.6370 |
| Actual increased expense caught in traps | trace. |
| Tracks, supposed to be those of dissatisfaction | .0034 |
| Increased expense plus dissatisfaction, suspected but not caught on account of lack of salt to put on its tail | 98.3596 |

And there you are!!

What matters it that Dr. Nesbitt has only facts and statistics to back him up while they have imagination and fertility of resource? Better it is that there should be three or four boards of health in the county with separate management and expenses for each than that Dr. Nesbitt should continue in a position where he can show up the ignorance and prejudice of certain persons who do not care to be correctly informed. It is a wonder that the Board of Health has been able to accomplish what it has in the face of such venomous opposition as was exhibited by Councilman Wood when he instructed the engineer at the water plant to give the Board no information but let them find out things themselves. Willing that the expensive apparatus at the station should be greatly injured, possibly, if only opportunity could be secured to discredit the work of the Board of Health. A model guardian of the public interests, surely. The same spirit is being manifested in certain quarters in regard to the incinerator and even this expensive and modern equipment will be demonstrated to be a failure by neglect of the simplest necessary rules for the handling of fuel trash and othe refuse.

It would seem tha most persons would have been convinced long ago that communities are not going backward in health matters. This idea of the consolidation of city and county boards has been adopted in a number of counties, was approved by the State Board of Health by the former County Board of Health and by the Board of County Commissioners and would work effectually and smoothly if obstacles were not continually placed in the way.

There are some people, however, who are unable to learn from others, and on whom even their own experience has about the same effect, as Josh Billings says, that age has upon a goose—it only makes them "tuffer."

"CITIZEN" COMES BACK.

To the Editor of The Star:

First shot fired hit the target squarely in the center. If there had been no "squealing" I would have thought no one had taken notice. Good so far, but I certainly hope that those who desire a clean town will not let the matter of improper exposure of person on the streets go by.

A lady of Wilmington made the remark in my hearing a few days ago that "this immoral dancing was not done by the ladies of Wilmington, but by visitors." So, from the signature of one of the articles in The Star of the 21st, perhaps this "no dress" fashion is only adhered to by the visitors I hope so.

In neither article of the 21st was the truth presented by me in my article of the 20th denied, but rather admitted, but thought it was nobody's business. Then why not throw open your bawdy houses and be done with it? "Nobody's business." It certainly is the dutv of the sworn officers to uphold the law of the city and that without being asked "personally" to do so.

In one of our last week papers, if I make no mistake, a correspondent states that a New York judge had a woman taken out of the court room and sent to her home because she had a split skirt on, claiming she was not decently clad.

Another officer of the law in North Carolina had a young woman's skirt sewed up on the street.

But as neither one of these object lessons will reach our case, I would suggest that each officer take a supply of skirts along on his arm, for it will take a full skirt in many instances.

If my "make up" was such that I could not attract the attention of men without going down on the public streets improperly clad, I would get me a dummy and put it in my room. "A street warmer in an undress condition is certainly the limit, even for Jersey City."

Unless the low vaudeville takes action at once the "leg show" will no longer attract people to a special licensed apartment. Who next?

May God help our good people to awake out of their sleep.

CITIZEN.

AS A WOMAN SEES IT.

To the Editor of The Star:

Yesterday morning while reading your paper I came across an article which afforded me much amusement as well as indignation. I suppose a great many will say, "My very thoughts expressed by some one else. It is certainly true. The women are going practically nude. I am so glad that some one has had nerve enough to write an article about it."

But, now, why not hear the other side of the story? Certainly, it is wrong to condemn any one without hearing her views on the subject. Men will probably say, "Their views? Why good Lord, what views have they?" That is just what I am going to tell you about. I am not, remember, trying to excuse the women entirely, because even though I am a woman myself, I do think some of the dresses are terrific. But, now, why can't the women wear "split skirts," "transparent skirts and "hobbles?" Surely, the men haven't any right to say anything about how we dress. Who are they to preach morals? Probably they will say, "But women are not supposed to do like men do. They are supposed to be more modest than men." Oh, fuzzle! what an excuse! Why are women supposed to be more modest than men? Surely they have as much right as men to do as they please. Men go in the surf with practically nothing on. What is said about them? Nothing. Why? "Because," you will say, "that is different." Why different? "I don't know why, but it is."

It seems to me that the men are the ones who should wear the skirts in bathing instead of the women. The women aren't half as disgusting looking in their "slit skirts," "X-ray skirts" and "hobble" as men are in their bath suits. Then, too, men wear these short "B. V. D's" and white pants, or even dark pants, and they might as well have on nothing. But "that's all right!" With men "it is different!"

Then, as to the argument of the "vulgar picture shows must be a thing too slow for the men and boys when they can see the real thing by standing on the corner, by either day or night"—that's absurd. Evidently, the person that wrote that article for Wednesday's paper is a hypocrite.

Some of the girls that go down town do know tha you can see through them and others don't. I have seen girls with three petticoats on and when they got out in the light I was able to see "plumb through them." Maybe a year or two ago their skirts were not transparent. They men had to pay for 10 or 12 yards of goods for each dress. Now they only have to pay for five yards. You hear men talking about how much easier it is for their wives to have a dress now than three or four years ago. It is the "hobbles." They are glad, so they say. So why should they "kick" about the styles. Then too, women are doing themselves a great justice. They are loosening their corsets. Some time ago the "harem" came out. Men "kicked." Won't some nice, kind man come forward and tell the women what to wear? Then maybe they will do it. MRS. SILVIA CARROL.

The Independent Ice Company

Wishes to remind the users of Ice that several years ago, when we were the only manufacturers and distributors of Ice in and around Wilmington that we did not attempt to put up the price, but maintained the same old schedul that had been in force years before, although we had every opportunity to name any list of prices we saw fit. This is a cold-blooded fact, as cold and clear as any ice ever made in Wilmington, and is well worth public consideration, for the average Ice Maker would have without any hesitation put up the price, but that has never been the Independent Ice Company's way of doing business.

Two years, or more, ago, we were largely instrumental, through the medium of The Central Ice Company, of which we were large owners, of having a Special Ice Train put on at 6:00 A. M., to serve the Trolley Line patrons, at city prices.

For these considerations, we are not posing as public benefactors. They were simply good business moves, as we saw them. As for ice by other Beach trains than 6:00 A. M., the prices now in effect are the same that have prevailed for years past.

We wish to further remind the public of the superior services, and the full weight deliveries they have this season, the lack of which conditions caused such widespread complaints the past two years, when we were not directly engaged in the city delivery of ice.

That our ice and our services are appreciated is attested by the fact that our sales are 25 % or more greater this Summer than ever before.

STATE COUNCIL ADJOURNS

Juniors Leaving for Their Homes—Do Not Want Reading of Bible in Public Schools Prohibited. Against Sectarianism.

With the installation of the officers elected Wednesday night to serve for the ensuing year the annual convention of the State Council of the Junior Order of American Mechanics which has been in session at Wrightsville Beach this week adjourned yesterday at noon to meet again next August in Durham. Only one session was held yesterday and into this was crowded a mass of routine matters pertaining to the affairs of the organization. The most important matter considered was a resolution endorsing the proposed constitutional amendment providing for the reading of the Bible in the public schools.

It was a most successful convention from every standpoint. There were in attendance 280 delegates from the different Councils, and a hundred or more visiting members. Many were accompanied by their families making the total attendance over 400. Most of the visitors left on the afternoon trains for their homes. A few remained over to spend a few days enjoying the many pleasant features of the seaside resort.

As it was the wish of the State officers that the time of the convention be devoted to the business coming before it for attention the local Councils did not plan many social features though nothing was left undone to make the visitors feel thoroughly at home. That they enjoyed their stay at the beach was shown by the many kind words spoken yesterday afternoon by the departing delegates.

Loving Cup for Judge Eure.

Judge N. L. Eure, retiring State Councilor, presided over the convention during its sessions. As a token of their esteem of the faithful and loyal service he has rendered during the past year the members of the convention presented him with a loving cup. As he is one of that unfortunate class of mortals classed as bachelors the convention also gave him a daintily painted picture of a beautiful woman. The speech of presentation was made by Rev. J. D. Andrew, of Newton, president of Catawba College. He said that he hoped that if Judge Eure should ever see fit to part with the loving cup that he would donate it to some fair lady.

According to the custom of the State Council, Judge Eure was also given the Past State Councilor gold emblem. This was presented in behalf of the convention by Rev. S. S. Nix, of Milton. Judge Eure expressed his deep appreciation of the marked honor conferred upon him and the high appreciation that the State Council had shown for his efforts in advancing its interests. He assured the members of the convention that he would endeavor to prove himself worthy of the high honor they had conferred upon him.

One of the matters that provoked much discussion at the morning session was a resolution introduced by John W. Gulledge, Esq., of Wadesboro, asking that the Juniors endorse the proposed amendment to the State constitution providing that the reading of the Bible in the public schools shall not be prohibited. Mr. J. R. Joyce, of Reidsville, offered an amendment to the resolution asking that the Legislature be memorialized to add to the proposed amendment the words "sectarianism shall not be taught."

Bible in Public Schools.

It was the opinion of the majority of the delegates that the amendment proposed by the constitutional commission should be amended in the way suggested by Mr. Joyce. The resolution as finally adopted endorsed the reading of the Bible in the public schools and asked that the proposed amendment be made to read: "The reading of the Bible in the public schools shall not be prohibited, but sectarianism shall not be taught."

It was decided not to change the time for the annual meeting of the State Council, but continue to hold it at the time now provided for in the State constitution which is Tuesday before the fourth Sunday in August. The secretary was instructed to purchase a set of jewels for the State officers before the next meeting of the State Council, the same not to cost less than $35 and not more than $50.

The awards of prizes to the Council which had made the largest increase in membership and also to the Council which had made the largest percentage gain was announced. Gastonia Council No. 68, was given the prize for the largest gain, its membership having increased from 178 to 297 in one year. South Statesville Council No. 309 was given the prize for the largest percentage of increase is membership having increased from 25 to 110 in one year, or a gain of nearly 450 per cent. The 12th district was awarded the prize for the largest increase in membership, and the fifth district for the largest percentage of gain.

Bible and Flag for Schools.

Each representative of the State Council was instructed to see that every public school in his county was provided with a Bible and a flag. The executive board was authorized to set aside from the funds of the State Council the sum of $1,500 for the purpose of taking care of the organization as a whole and for helping the weaker Councils, the money to be spent at the discretion of the executive board.

The executive board is composed of the following: J. W. Sechrest, High Point; Paul Jones, Tarboro; N. L. Ture, Greensboro; Sam F. Vance, Winston-Salem; George V. Fulp, Kernersville.

A representative of a New York surety company appeared before the convention to ask that they provide for a blanket bond for all the officers of the State Council. The convention, however, decided to allow each officer to provide his bond in whatever manner was most satisfactory to him.

A rising vote of thanks was tendered Woodus Kellum, Esq., and the other members of the local order for the many courtesies shown the convention both before and during the session of the State Council and also to the citizens of Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach for their splendid hospitality.

Deputy J. R. Joyce of Reidsville, then installed the officers-elect after which State Councilor J. W. Sechrest, of High Point, and Vice State Councilor Paul Jones, of Tarboro, made short speeches expressive of their deep appreciation of the honor conferred upon them.

The session was then formally adjourned with the singing of "God be With You Till We Meet Again."

Visited Steamer Cherokee.

Accepting the invitation of Mr. C. J. Becker, the local agent, a great many of the Juniors and their wives and friends visited the Clyde Line steamer Cherokee in the afternoon on their way from the beach to the station. They inspected the fine ship with evident great interest and pleasure and they spoke in enthusiastic praise of the handsome liner. The vessel was a revelation to a great many in the party; they did not know that Wilmington had so fine a passenger carrying boat making regular trips here. For a great many in the party it was the first time they had ever had an opportunity to go aboard a modern ocean liner. Some of the ladies in the party from "away up the State" were just a little bit uneasy lest the big ship suddenly take a notion to start before they could get off, one remarking that she "had not lost anything across the water." All enjoyed the visit over the steamer and many in the party make frequent trips to New York and several were remarked that they "believed they would take the water trip next time." The visitors also found a great deal to interest them at other points on the wharf and they will no doubt return to their homes more greatly impressed with the importance of Wilmington than ever before.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Arrangements Completed Yesterday for Meeting Which Begins on September 1st and Continues Two Weeks.

Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent of public instruction, yesterday completed practically all arrangements for the teachers' institute to be held in this county, and decided definitely that the institute begin on Monday, September 1st, and continue for two weeks. This will mean that the schools will open two weeks later than usual this year, as hitherto they have been opening on the first Monday in September.

The superintendent was advised yesterday that Mr. I. C. Griffin, superintendent of the graded schools at Marion, N. C., has been secured through the office of the State superintendent to conduct the institute here, and his assistant will be Miss Susie Fulghum, of Goldsboro. Mr. Griffin's schools were due to open a few days before the institute here will close, but at the urgent request of the State superintendent's office the Marion school committeemen agreed to postpone the opening for a few days so that Mr. Griffin could fill the appointment here. It is rather late in the season for an institute and the county is fortunate in being able to get these experienced instructors for the institute.

This is the first institute held in this county in years and would not be held this year were it not for the fact that it is required by the State Board of Education.

The sessions of the institute will be held in the Hemenway school. The institute for colored will be held at Peabody school. A conductor of the colored institute is to be secured locally by Prof. Catlett.

PRAISE FOR WILMINGTON.

Returning Firemen Send Their Thanks for Many Courtesies.

In every mail now Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the fire department, is receiving letters from returning firemen thanking him and the people generally of the city for the many courtesies shown them while attending the State convention and tournament last week. The newspapers in the towns that sent delegates are also giving voice to the praise of the returning firemen.

From Saturday's Tarboro Southerner: "Chief Paul McCabe, of the local department, this morning said that he wished through The Southerner to heartily thank Chief Schnibben, of the Wilmington department, for many courtesies extended him and the Tarboro team while in that city. He stated that the local men had the best time at all and were delighted with the meet and the city of Wilmington."

The Star yesterday received the following letter:

"Chapel Hill, N. C., Aug. 19, 1913.
"Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C.

"Gentlemen:—At a meeting of the Chapel Hill fire department held since its return from the recent tournament in your city, a motion was made and unanimously carried that the chief be instructed to write you this letter requesting you to publish it in your columns. And thank Chief Schnibben, the members of his department and the citizens of Wilmington for their courteous treatment of the Chapel Hill team while in attendance upon the tournament.

"Thanking you in advance for your kindness, we are

"Yours very truly,
"CHAPEL HILL FIRE DEPT.
"JNO. L. FOISTER, Chief."

GOES TO RALEIGH.

Mr. B. A. Thees Becomes Physical Director of Y. M. C. A. There.

Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer:

"Mr. B. A. Thees, for eight years connected with the Y. M. C. A. in Wilmington, has been employed as physical director of the Y. M. C. A. at Raleigh and will begin his work here September 1st. Secretary Hall has just returned from Wilmington, where he secured the services of Mr. Thees.

"The new physical director takes the place of Mr. W. L. Boggs, Jr., who has been in charge of the gymnasium work during the period the building has been opened. Mr. Boggs returns to his home in Greenville, S. C. He has won his way into the hearts of the young men and boys of Raleigh by his pleasing manner and interest in their physical welfare.

"Mr. Thees comes here from Sumter, S. C., where he has served as physical director for the past 17 months. He went there from Wilmington. He has had special training in the Y. M. C. A. Summer schools in Silver Bay, New York and Black Mountain, and his recommendations well qualify him for the work in Raleigh."

APPLES FOR COLD STORAGE.

Superintendent of Independent Ice Company Leaves for North.

Mr. Rogers, superintendent of the cold storage department of the Independent Ice Co., left last night for a trip of ten days or longer through the apple belt of Virginia and New York State where he is commissioned to purchase for his company 10,000 barrels of fancy apples. The fruit will be brought to Wilmington after being graded, packed and branded and will be carried on cold storage here subject to the orders of local consumers and purchasers in this territory. Mr. Rogers is advised that the crop is very short this year, therefore he starts early and hopes to contract advantageously for the supply needed.

Wilmington people will be interested to know that other departments of the local cold storage are being operated most profitably and upon an extensive scale, the industry being one of the most important now in the city.

WILL CELEBRATE LABOR DAY

Wilmington Trades Council Plans Big Picnic at Wrightsville Beach First Monday in September—Speeches.

Labor Day will be more generally observed and more fittingly celebrated in Wilmington this year than for many years if the tentative plans of the Wilmington Trades Council are carried out. The celebration will take the form of a picnic at Lumina, Wrightsville Beach, and there will be one or more prominent local speakers to make addresses on topics of peculiar interest to the working men.

The decision to hold the picnic at Wrightsville Beach was reached at an enthusiastic meeting of the Trades Council last night. The Trades Council is a strong organization and practically all the members and their families and friends will enjoy the day at the beach. The details of the programme will be arranged later. Mr. J. A. Gillerlain is chairman of the committee on arrangements, and Mr. Luther B. Jones is general chairman of all the committees.

The Tidewater Power Company is arranging an attractive programme of athletic and aquatic events which will be given at Lumina on that date. Everything indicates that the pavilion will be crowded on Labor Day as it has never been crowded on a Labor Day before.

EXPERT SHOOTING TODAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Ad Topperwein Will be at Gun Club This Afternoon.

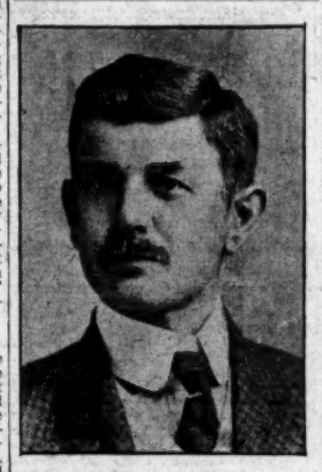
Mr. and Mrs. Ad opperwein, two of the country's most celebrated marksmen, will give an exhibition of fancy and trick shooting this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the grounds of the New Hanover Gun Club at 17th and Castle streets. The admission will be free to all, and the public is invited to witness the exhibition.

Mrs. Topperwein, who shoots to demonstrate the superior quality of the American Powder Mills "Dead Shot" smokeless powder, has the reputation of being the premier lady shot of the world. Although she took up shooting only a few years ago, she has entertained many thousands of people by her great skill with the rifle, shotgun and pistol. Besides being a wonderful wing and fancy shot she is a consistent shooter at the traps and has won many high averages in competition with the best professional shots in the country. Ladies are especially invited to witness her astonishing skill.



MR. AD TOPPERWEIN.

Mr. Topperwein represents the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, and lives at San Antonio, Texas. He uses no special equipment except ordinary Winchester rifles, shooting regular cartridges with solid ball. He shoots at oranges, apples, bits of coal and many other tiny objects which are all thrown into the air and shot at with rifle or revolver. He is the originator of many marvelous fancy and trick shots and also of the feat of drawing the outlines of Indian chiefs and other pictures with bullets shot from a rifle.

Mr. and Mrs. Topperwein have given exhibitions of their wonderful shooting in Wilmington before, and will no doubt have a large crowd to witness their shooting this afternoon.

HERBERT JOHNSON ARRESTED.

Charged With Store Breaking and Several Other Offenses.

Herbert Johnson, a young white man, was arrested yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Eighth and Wooster streets by Constable Davis on a warrant charging him with store breaking. It is alleged that he was one of a party of young men who broke into several stores at Delgado Saturday and Sunday nights. Warrants have also been sworn out against him charging him with the larceny of a graphophone and also of getting money under false pretenses. He was placed in jail and will have a hearing before Justice Harriss today.

Two other young men are in jail who are also charged with having been connected with breaking into the stores at Delgado. Their names are John Skipper and Frank Riggan. An affidavit has been made before the Clerk of the Superior Court stating that Riggan is not sane. An examination will be made this morning by the clerk to determine his sanity.

Skipper will have a hearing before Justice Harriss today at the same time that the Johnson case comes up for trial.

Edward Fryar, a young white boy, was bound over to the Superior Court early in the week by Justice Harriss on a warrant charging him with having been one o fthe party connected with the store breaking. There is a warrant out for the arrest of another young man, who is also alleged to have been one of the party. He has not been located.

LANDED BIG CONTRACT.

Heating and Plumbing for Cape Fear Hotel Amounts to Big Sum.

The contract for heating and plumbing of the Cape Fear Hotel now in course of construction at the southeast corner of Front and Walnut streets, has been awarded to Messrs. W. R. Dosher & Co., of this city. The amount of the contract is approximately $20 000 and is one of the largest contracts the firm has handled locally in some time. The hotel will be ten stories in height, built of concrete and will contain about 160 rooms. It will be one of the finest hotels in the South.

SABBATH SCHOOL INSTITUTE

Interesting Programme Has Been Prepared for Meeting at White Plains Tomorrow—Wilmington Ministers Will Attend

The Sabbath Schools of all Evangelical churches within reach of the Institute are cordially invited to send delegates who, together with the ministers in Bladen and Columbus counties, will be accorded all the privileges of the floor in the discussions.

TWO FIRES YESTERDAY.

Residence on Seventh Street Badly Damaged—Small Blave on Sixth.

The fire department was called out twice yesterday, the first call being a telephone alarm sent in at 8 o'clock in the morning from No. 414 North Sixth street, and the second was sent in at 7 o'clock in the afternoon on account of a blaze at No. 1207 South Seventh street. Both calls were responded to promptly, though therewas a little delay yesterday afternoon on account of some improvements which are being made on Marateller street, making it impossible to get the hose wagon nearer than a half block to the scene of the fire.

The roof of the residence on Seventh street, occupied by Anna Walker, colored, caught fire from sparks from the chimney and was badly damaged before the flames were subdued. The estimated loss is $150 with no insurance. The hose had to be carried by hand but as soon as the water was brought to play on the building the fire was soon extinguished and the adjoining residence which was within two feet of the burning building was not damaged in the least.

The residence on Sixth street was occupied by Sarah Alston. The roof of this building also caught fire from sparks from the chimney, but the fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The estimated loss is about $10.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Gordon Johnson Acquitted of Charge of Highway Robbery.

The Recorder yesterday discharged Gordon Johnson, a young white man, who was charged with highway robbery in a warrant sworn out by Arthur Hewlett. Johnson testified that he took a suit case from Hewlett thinking it was his own. He disclaimed any intention of wrong doing. Hewlett testified that on Tuesday night Johnson had met him on the street and taken from him a suit case. Later he and several friends got the suit case from Johnson, who still claimed it to be his own.

Zack Davis, colored, who was found yesterday morning asleep on the porch of Mr. Lacy Hunt's residence, was fined $5 and the costs for being drunk. A charge of simple trespass was first preferred against him, but investigation of the facts showed that he could not be guilty under the law of this offense. It was then recalled that when he was arrested that he appeared to be in an intoxicated condition. Davis, it seems, returned Wednesday night from Columbia, S. C., on an excursion, and apparently imbibed too freely of "fire water."

ATTACK ON FORT MOULTRIE.

Fort Caswell Baseball Team Go Down to Win in Battle.

The following from Wednesday's Charleston, S. C., Post will be of interest in this city and at Fort Caswell:

"A strong and husky team of soldiers, representing the baseball ability to be found at Fort Caswell, of Wilmington, N. C., are expected to arrive today, for the purpose of launching a diamond battle this afternoon with the strong Fort Moultrie team, the game being played on the post diamond. It was not quite certain this morning whether the visitors would arrive in time for today's fray, but in case they do not, the battle will be fought tomorrow.

"A series of five games has been arranged between the military nines, and that many hotly fought contests is the prospect. The Fort Caswell nine has been winning quite frequently this season, and as the local artillerymen are known to have a hard team to down, the series between the two should result in much good baseball. One game will be put on each afternoon on the post diamond, until the quintet is completed."

GOES TO RICHMOND.

Editor John S. Ramos Leaves for Home to Recuperate Health.

Mr. John S. Ramos, editor of the Live Wire, Wilmington's unique weekly publication of local circulation, left last night for his former home in Richmond, Va., where he will spend several weeks recuperating his health, having recently been confined to his room with fever. Having suffered an attack of fever here previously, he desired to be at home in case of protracted sickness and left at once after being able to be up again after an attack of illness a few days ago.

Mr. Ramos stated just before leaving that, for the present at least, his publication would be suspended but that upon his return to the city he might take up his work again. His friends in Wilmington hope for his early recovery.

Assaulted Her Husband.

Hattie Davis, colored, was arrested last night by Constable Davis on the charge of having assaulted her husband Wednesday night with an axe. She was placed in jail, and will have a hearing before Justice Harris today. She and her husband had a dispute and she knocked him on the side of the head with the axe. He was complaining considerably last night, but did not appear to be badly hurt, it is said.

AN ENTERTAINING CONCERT AT BOYS' BRIGADE ARMORY.

An enjoyable and entertaining concert was given last night at the Boys' Brigade Armory by several young ladies of the city, which was attended by a large and appreciative audience. All of the numbers were of a high order and were heartily encored. The young ladies showed themselves to be real artists, and demonstrated the results of the splendid training that they have received.

Miss Agnes Chasten was pianist, and rendered several difficult selections of music in a very artistic and delightful manner. Miss Lydia B. Fost and Miss Katie Foard, as sopranos, and Miss Julia Culbreth, as contralto, sang with rare ease and grace. Miss Florence Wessell was reader and her selections were given in a most effective an pleasing manner. The whole programme from beginning to end afforded a most delightful evening for lovers of good music and the many friends of the young ladies who took part hope that they may be induced to give another concert at an early date.

The fact that Wilmington has so many excellent musicians and entertainers is not as widely known as it should be. The fortunate ones who had the privilege of hearing the concert last night are lout in their praise of this splendid entertainment given exclusively by home talent.

WITH THE MOVIES

A great Kleine-Eclipse special release film (in two big reels) will feature the Grand's swell offering for today and the management is to be highly commended upon securing this superb feature, which has been the talw of the larger cities and which is only being sent out to a few theatres in the South at extra big cost. It is called "The Statue of Fright" and it is a wonderful story of love, failure, revenge and death. A notable cast will be seen in the presentation, which the Grand will make with its usual care and on its accustomed elaborate scale. Grandites should be certain to see this remarkable photoplay for the small price of five cents. This will not be all today by any means, as a big Mailes is on the programme in "The Gambler's Heart." it is a beautiful, exciting story; one with a big moral for both old and young.

Today's Bijou Offering.

The great, expensive Warner feature films, in three seels, which the Bijou offered yesterday in addition to its regular bill wa sreceived with glad acclaim by tremendous sized audiences and the enterprising Bijou management was felicitated and asked when other Warner features will be given. The answer is that they will be given just as soon as manufactured and released, because the Bijou has a special and exclusive contract for these magnificent films. Today's bill will not be shy, however, on merit and will be one of the greatest ever. "The Yellow Streak" is a gripping dramatic that heads today's film bill, beingastoryofaban MH MH MHMH being a story of a bank official who turns robber and is killed in his own home. Another thrilling dramatic is on in "The Flying Switch." It is a railroad story of bandits and fights. The scene when the bound operator ticks the key with his chin is a great novelty. There's still another superb film today in "The Sheriff's Son," which is Essanay's latest thriller.

—Yesterday's Charlotte Chronicle: "Down at Wilmington a company started in to develop a new residence suburb quite a distance out from the city. —Rachel Wilson, colored, was adjudged insane by the Clerk of Superior Court yesterday and application has been made for her admission to the State Hospital at Goldsboro. This is the third negro woman to be found insane in the last week or ten days. Two more will be made tomorrow, at the close of which Judge Roan will deliver his charge and place the accused man's fate in the jury's hands.

The opening address for the prosecution was made today by Attorney Frank A. Hooper, while Attorney Reuben R. Arnold delivered the first argument for the defense. Cotton Season Nears End.

The present cotton season will close September 1st. The number of bales received here for the year, from September 1st, 1913, to date, is 342,728. Up to August 1st there had been 333,218 shipped from Wilmington, most of it by Messrs Alex. Sprunt & Son. While the amount of cotton handled this year will hardly reach of the last year it is believed that Wilmington will retain her place as the fourth cotton exporting port of the world, for there has been a corresponding decreasc at other ports.

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Foodle Is Womans' Greatest Happiness.

One of the most important matters about which women concern themselves is their future status as a grandmother. And she is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. This is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It certainly has a wonderful influence, allays all fear, banishes all pain, is a most grateful encouragement to the young, expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happy in mind, free in body and thus destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should.

The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles free, pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and, in place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread, it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation.

There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women, hence Mother's Friend is really one of the greatest blessings that could be devised.

This splendid and certain remedy can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle, and is sure to prove of inestimable value, not only upon the mother, but upon the health and future of the child. Write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 132 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers.

that comes from a full set of sound teeth. Most people have the best of teeth in early life, but refuse to appreciate it until a great change has come and decay has done its destructive work.

It's a very small percentage who consider their teeth of such importance that daily attention is necessary to protect properly.

All the time and money you spend on your teeth is for your personal benefit.

The thorough satisfaction that patients get after their first call, is honest evidence that your dread to see a dentist is useless as well as careless.

COTTON MARKET VERY ACTIVE

Conditions Somewhat Unsettled—Prices Ease Off Under Rain Predictions—Close Steady, Net Unchanged.

New York, Aug. 21. — The cotton market was very active again today, but more or less unsettled, and after making new high ground for the movement, eased off under private predictions of rain in the South before the end of the week and heavy realizing. The close was steady, net unchanged to three points higher.

Private cables stated that a small failure in Liverpool was without any particular influence, but that departments helped to unsettle the English market, which was several points lower than due at the hour of the local opening. Prices here started steady at a decline of four points on the near months, which were influenced by the cables, while later positions were 3 to 5 points higher on over-night buying orders, the execution of which carried the general list 5 or 6 points above the closing figures of yesterday, during the first few minutes. Many recent buyers appeared to be taking profits, however, and rumors that the spot basis in the Western belt was slightly easier on yesterday's advance in futures, created some reactionary sentiment.

Prices quickly eased off, after the call, but after showing a net loss of six or seven points firmed up again on the dry Western belt forecast, and detailed weather reports showing continued high temperatures in Texas and Oklahoma, as well as dry, warm weather in Alabama. New Orleans, Memphis and Wall Street houses were big buyers on this advance, which sent prices 11 to 14 points net higher, with October contracts selling at 11.49, or 77 points above the low level of last week, and within six points of the best price reached since they touched 10.81, the low level of last April. Realizing became increasingly active later, and there were reactions of 10 or 13 points in the late trading on the optimistic weather views of local map readers, and further reports of an easier spot basis in the South.

Cotton futures closed steady.

FEDERAL JUDGE SPEER.

Will Attend Hearings of Committee Investigating Charges Against Him.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Federal Judge Emery F. Speer, of Georgia, charged with official misconduct in papers filed with the House Committee on Judiciary, will attend any hearings that the committee may have to take evidence in the case. He telegraphed today to Representative Hughes, of Georgia, a life-long friend, and college class mate, asking that he arrange for his appearance at the proper time.

Mr. Hughes immediately conferred with Chairman Clayton, of the committee, and later notified Judge Speer that he would be permitted to be present with counsel.

A conference of the Georgia delegation in the House for consideration of the Speer case has been called for tomorrow. The meeting will be held at the Capitol and all members of the delegation, except Representative Roddenberry and Edwards, who are out of the city, will attend.

The purpose is to consider what course the delegation should adopt in view of the charges made against a Federal judge within their State.

It is likely that a sub-committee of two or three will be appointed to review the charges before the committee, a right which Chairman Clayton will accord.

The sub-committee will report to the delegation as to whether the charges are sufficiently serious to warrant action, which would probably be in a form of a resolution to be offered in the House by one of their number to impeach the judge. Such a resolution would be referred to the Judiciary committee, which will resume consideration of the Department of Justice report next Monday.

APPORTIONMENT OF FUNDS.

Treasury Department Depositing Money to Aid in Crop Movement.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The Treasury Department today began making deposits of the additional $50,000,000 government funds that are to be placed with banks in the agricultural States to aid in the movement. The first deposits were made in the reserve cities in the Southern States, among which it is unofficially stated were Baltimore, Richmond, Atlanta and Memphis, the three latter each receiving $750,000.

The apportionment of the funds has been completed, according to information at the department. It was stated unofficially that the largest deposits would be made with the National banks at Chicago, this being the most important reserve city in the agricultural States. The next largest deposits are to be made in St. Louis, with Baltimore second and New Orleans third. No official announcement of the amount sent these cities has been made, but unofficially it has been learned that Baltimore will receive between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 and that Chicago and St. Louis will divide in the neighborhood of $15,000,000.

STOCK MOVEMENTS UNCERTAIN

Prices Fail to Recover During the Session From the Depression of the First Half Hour—Business Drags.

New York, Aug. 21.—Definite news concerning the affairs in which Wall Street is particularly interested was lacking today, and the uncertain movements of stocks reflected this lack. Although no attempt was made to put the market under heavy pressure and business dragged, prices did not recover from the depression of the first half hour.

If was a waiting market and traders were not in the mood to enter upon new ventures. News from Mexico was mixed. The continued uncertainty over the Mexican situation was the chief restraining factor. The reduction of $2 a ton in steel billets attracted attention, being considered one of the best indications of prevailing conditions in the steel trade in general. United States Steel was sold persistently and its heaviness influenced the entire list. Chesapeake and Ohio rose a point after announcement of reduction in the annual dividend rate from 5 to 4 per cent. The heavy losses which the company sustained in the Spring floods explained the change, which had been generally expected and fully discounted.

The bond market showed a reactionary tendency. Total sales, par value, $915,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales were 209,200, including: A. C. L., 400; C. and O., 3,000; L. V., 5,800; L. and N., 100; N. and W., 500; Reading, 43,200; S. A. L., 200; S. A. L., pfd., 100; Southern Railway, 200; T. C., 800; U. S. Steel, 37,800.

derstood, provides that he shall be transported to the capital of the last State through which he passed prior to the crossing of the frontier. But Thaw did not enter by any train. He came behind a wind-blown horse and when captured he was nearer Vermont than any other State in the Union. Already the immigration authorities have arranged to hold a hearing at Coaticook, the nearest point to the Vermont border, whenever Thaw may fall into their hands.

Thaw's Plans.

The plan of Thaw's lawyers—and there is reason to believe that they have had assurances of its success—is to have Thaw examined before that board and ordered deported to Montpelier. Thaw would prefer Vermont to any State as a refuge. Investigation made in his behalf has convinced those working in his interests that Vermont would afford the most involved in extradition proceedings.

New York Authorities Active.

The New York authorities, while exerting pressure at Ottawa to bring about Thaw's deportation to the New York border if possible, or to have him transferred to Montreal as a prisoner of the immigration department, nevertheless have anticipated the Vermont contingency and sent there today John E. Mack, former district attorney of Dutchess county, to arrange for possible hearings.

Details of Thaw's trip on the night before he was arrested near Coaticook were obtained today by immigration officials who went over the ground in search of witnesses to use against Mitchell Thompson, under arrest on a charge of aiding and abetting Thaw, a lunatic, to enter Canada.

According to these officials, Thaw when he left the train at Beechers Falls, Vt., had supper with his two companions, one of whom was Thompson. After supper their hired a rig and drove to Canaan, Vt. They then doubled back and crossed the frontier into Canada. The roads were of the old corduroy variety and the horse exhausted. When two miles from Canaan, on the Canadian side, the party was compelled to forsake the rig and hire another from an old French-Canadian farmer, Octave Nedeau. The best that Nedeau could give them was one horse and a rickety buggy. In this way they made slow progress over the bad roads till St. Hermenengilde-Garford was reached, when Thaw was arrested.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie, Thaw's brother-in-law and sister, left town today. Mrs. Thaw, the mother, would not come here, they said.

"We shall retain the best available counsel for Harry," said Mr. Carnegie. "And we are well pleased with the progress of the case to date. Of course, it would have been very fine if Harry could have secured his freedom without all this trouble, but I feel certain that his days of confinement now are very few. I am leaving here because my wife and I feel that we can be of no more help at present. I have telegraphed to Harry's mother that there is no need of her coming here."

Asked point blank just before he stepped on the train if the Thaw family would support the five men who managed Thaw's escape by automobile Carnegie shrugged his shoulders and said:

"Well, of course, we expect to do the proper thing."

No Law for Extradition.

New York, Aug. 21.—Examination of the statutes of New Hampshire and Vermont does not reveal authority for the extradition of Thaw from either of those States to New York on the ground that he is an escaped lunatic. The stateus covering extradition relate only to fugitives from justice from another State who must be charged with a crime committed in that State.

This was the interpretation of the statutes of the two States given by competent attorneys of this city today. It was pointed out that the warrant charging Thaw with conspiracy, issued by the authorities of Duchess county, New York, could be made the basis for extradition proceedings.

It was held that if the question were then brought up in the State where extradition was asked, that Thaw, being insane, could not have committed a crime—that this question could not be adjudicated by the authorities of that State. The question would be for the New York State authorities to decide after his extradition, it was said.

A decision of the United States Supreme Court in the matter of extradition between States, holds that whether the charge brought is legal and sufficiently laid in the indictment is a judicial question to be decided by the courts of the State in which the crime was committed, and not by the executive authority of the State upon which the demand is made.

Thaw once back in this manner, the question would then come up in the State of New York as to whether, being a lunatic under the laws of that State, he could be tried on the charge of conspiracy. Whether or not he would be in the custody of the New York authorities and there would be nothing to prevent his re-incarceration in Matteawan, it was said.

Justice Globensky's Opinion.

Montreal, Aug. 21.—"All that I have to decide is whether the warrant of commitment on which Harry K. Thaw is confined in jail was legally issued or not," said Justice Globensky, before whom the Thaw case in Sherbrooke is pending on his arrival here tonight from that city. Owing to the fact that the case is before him, the justice was not inclined to discuss it freely, but he cleared up several points in connection with Thaw's detention.

"As the case now stands before me," the justice added, "it has nothing to do with extradition or deportation proceedings. The warrant on which Thaw is confined was signed by Justice of the Peace Dupuis, of Coaticook, and the charge against Thaw is that he illegally escaped from Matteawan asylum.

"The writ of habeas corpus was issued yesterday afternoon. It was to have been served on the jailer instanter in which case Thaw would have been produced in court before me this morning and the merits of the case would have been argued. I would then have had to decide whether the writ should be maintained and Thaw set free, or quashed and the prisoner returned to jail.

"The writ, however, was not served on the jailer by the defense. When I left Sherbrooke this afternoon, I understood it would be served tonight. I will sit in Sherbrooke again in the ordinary course of events on Wednesday next and if the writ has been served by then Thaw will be brought before me and the case argued. Until next Wednesday, therefore, there will be no further action in the Thaw case as far as the habeas goes."

Judge Globensky said he could not explain the action of the defense in not bringing the matter to a head today, but suggested they desire more time to perfect their argument.

"I want to make it clear," Justice Globensky said, "that I have not decided whether the offense charged is extraditable or not, or give any ruling in regard to deportation or anything of that kind. All that I must decide is whether or not Thaw is at present confined in jail at Sherbrooke legally."

Spring-Rice will be similarly transmitted to Mr. Sulzer.

No Political "Earthquakes."

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 21.—True to the promise of Acting Governor Glynn, there were no "political earthquakes" at the capital today. An atmosphere of placidity pervaded both suites of executive chambers.

Governor Sulzer remained in the seclusion of his private office, and his only official act was to take a hand in the Thaw deportation matter by requesting the assistance of the Federal authorities.

Mr. Glynn spent considerable time over the same matter. He also honored two requisitions for fugitives from justic from the Governor of Georgia and the Governor of Massachusetts.

The expectation that a sharp skirmish would be precipitated by a requisition by the acting governor for the services of some of the members of the gubernatorial clerical staff, now quartered in Governor Sulzer's apartments, failed to materialize. Mr. Glynn announced that for the present he is being served efficaciously by the members of his staff, who assisted him as Lieutenant Governor, and reaffirmed his determination to avoid all unnecessary friction.

STANDARDIZATION OF CORN.

Department of Agriculture Describes Seven Grades Formulated.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Seven grades of commercial corn tentatively formulated by the Department of Agriculture's office of grain standardization were announced today. The descriptions were given out by acting Secretary Galloway so the public may be fully informed regarding them before they finally are adopted as the official American standard grades for commercial corn.

A formal hearing will be held here the latter part of September, or some time during October, when Government officials will listen to any objections or suggestions from the corn trade or others interested before the grades finally are adopted.

Descriptions of the grade classification of white, yellow and mixed corn, in maximum percentages, follow:

Grade No. 1—Moisture, 14.0; damaged corn, 2; foreign matter, 1; badly broken, 2.

Grade No. 2—Moisture, 15.5; damaged corn, 4; foreign matter, 1; badly broken, 3.

Grade No. 3—Moisture, 17.5; damaged corn, 6; foreign matter, 2; badly broken, 4.

Grade No. 4—Moisture, 19.5; damaged corn, 8; foreign matter, 2; badly broken, 4.

Grade No. 5—Moisture, 21.5; damaged corn, 10; foreign matter, 3; badly broken, 5.

Grade No. 6—Moisture, 32.0; damaged corn, 15; foreign matter, 5; badly broken, 7.

Sample Grade—All corn that does not meet the requirements of any of the six numerical grades by reason of an excessive percentage of moisture, damaged kernels, foreign matter or badly broken corn, or corn that is hot, heat-damaged, fire-burned, infested with live weevil or otherwise of distinctly low quality.

General ruels tentatively adopted include:

Corn in Grades Nos. 1 to 5 must be sweet.

White corn, all grades, shall be at least 98 per cent. white.

Yellow corn, all grades, shall be at least 95 per cent. yellow.

Mixed corn, all grades, shall include corn of various colors ont coming within the limits for color as provided for under white or yellow corn.

No. 6 Grade may be musty, sour or of inferior quality, and reasons for so grading must be stated on the inspector's ticket or certificate, and must be also stated for Sample Grade.

Finely broken corn, the department rules, should include all particles that will pass through an 8x8 mesh wire seive, and badly broken or "cracked" corn through a 4x4 mesh.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

Farmer Murders Family, Sets Fire to House, Then Leaps Into Flames.

Dubuque, Ia., Aug. 21.—Charges that Henry Sternweis, a wealthy farmer, murdered his wife and three children, set fire to his farm property and then leaped into the flames were made tonight by Coroner Voelker and other officials after a day's investigation of the tragedy, northwest of here early today. Four bodies, burned beyond recognition, were recovered from the ruins. The missing body is believed to be that the nine-year-old son.

A belief that the fire was of incendiary origin resulted from the discovery that the one building not wholly destroyed, a granary, was found to have been skrinkled with kerosene. The fire in the granary failed to burn because the doors were so tightly closed.

Sternweis, who was said to be worth $100,000, had not lived happily with his wife for some time, according to the neighbors.

CONGRESS IN REVIEW.

Summary of a Day's Work in the House and Senate.

Senate:

Senator Penrose introduced resolution to require President Wilson to take necessary steps to place American troops in Mexico to portect Americans and to appropriate $25,000,000 for such use. Considerable discussion of Mexican situation followsd.

Consideration of Tariff bill was resumed, Senator Pittman speaking in support of the bill.

Philippine committee approved appointment of Representative Harrison as Governor-General of the Philippines.

Adjourned at 5:50 P. M. to 11 A. M. tomorrow.

House:

Not in session. Meets Friday.

Democrats continued their caucus on Administration Currency bill.

St. Louis, Aug. 21.—Suits were filed by the University of Missouri today against certain legacies included in the will of the late Joseph Pulitzer The litigation was brought under a law imposing a collateral inheritance tax of five per cent. on all legacies except those bequeathed to direct heirs of the will's maker. The University of Missouri is beneficiary of this tax.

Mexican policy and unsupported generally in Congress.

Republicans Uphold Wilson.

The first refutation of this Huerta supposition came in the Senate today, when prominent Republicans vigorously upheld the course of the President. The expressions of confidence in the wisdom and good faith of President Wilson were made by several Republican leaders in succession after Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, Republican, had introduced a resolution to require the President to place United States troops in Mexico to protect Americans. No action was taken on the resolution, and though Senator Penrose declared the sending of troops could by resolution be decreed not unfriendly to Mexico, the view at the White House and State Department was that such a move, in effect, would be an act of war.

Against Drastic Measures.

President Wilson reiterated to callers today that he had absolutely no intention of taking any drastic measures, denied that Secretary Garrison, of the War Department, had been called back to Washington, and referred to the fact that Mr. Garrison would take a vaaction after his inspection trip in the West was ended. He incidentally complimened Republican Senators on their spirit of coperation emphatically stating that there had not been the slightest exhibition of partisanship.

That Provisional President Huerta has advanced the idea that recognition of his government is a partisan question in the United States, and that the Democratic party is not actually dominant, is admitted by administration officials, but they believe that if such an illusion exists in Mexico, it shortly will be dissipated, not only by news of today's debate in the Senate, but by the expectation that Congress in some way will show its confidence in the President when he reads his message. The administration hopes that when the facts are known in Mexico the Huerta authorities may be more inclined to respect the American suggestions.

The United States, in brief, has proposed that Huerta resign in favor of a provisional president acceptable to all sides; that a suspension of hostilities thereby be brought about and a constitutional election held, the resulting administration to receive the recognition of the American Government.

Thus far Huerta has flatly rejected the American proposals and renewed his demand for recognition, declaring his financial troubles are due to the failure of the United States to recognize. Official adivces to the State Department, however, describe the provisional president's plight financially as desperate, and officials here believe he has not sufficient money to pay his troops and cannot get money abroad.

These considerations and the incessant warfare of the constitutionalists, likewise lead administration officials to the conclusion that even though Huerta may continue to scorn the suggestions of the United States, the situation in Mexico soon will disentangle itself and that a policy of noninterference should be maintained for the present at least.

It is not known yet whether President Wilson will make any specific recommendations in his message, but it was learned from a high government official that his statement of the case will be the foundation for the next step on the part of the United States. The President has made it plain, however, that he has no thought of armed intervention and that he is as dtermined as ever to maintain an attitude of peace and friendliness toward Mexico.

Lind Visit to Continue.

Mr. Lind probably will remain in Mexico City indefinitely, and his reports indicate that he has not abandoned hope. President Wilson told callers during the day that the envoy was not in the least disturbed by the situation, and that he had handled it with admirable tact and discretion.

The President is undecided yet whether he will make extended comment in his message or allow his recital of the facts as disclosed in the exchange of notes between Lind and Huerta to serve as a reiteration of his views.

He will work on the message all da ytomorrow, denying himself to callers in order to complete the task as quickly as possible. It is possible that he will talk the communication over with members of the Congressional Foreign Relations Committee when it is finished.

Penrose Makes Demands.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Senator Penrose tonight addressed a letter to Secretary Bryan demanding that he immediately telegraph Provisional President Huerta and General Carranza, the constitutionalist leader, warning them that the American government will hold them personally responsible for any harm inflicted upon Americans at Chihuahua, who have been threatened by revolutionists.

Shirley C. Hulse, son-in-law of Lieut. Gov. Reynolds, of Pennsylvania, and his family, are among the 46 Americans in the threatened group at the plant of the Mexican Northern Power & Irrigation Company.

Earlier in the day Secretary Bryan had sent to Senator Penrose a consular report stating that revolutionists had announced their intention of executing the engineer of the plant without trial if he again impounded water in the power company's dam. Tonight the Secretary said he had not received Senator Penrose's letter, but that telegrams as strong as the Senator could wish already had been sent by the Department and that a letter had been prepared this evening giving him the substance of these messages.

A number of refugees from the States of Durango and Tampico, are now at the seaport Tampico, whence they will sail for New Orleans next Sunday, according to report today to the State Department. The Seymour-Taylor family of the Chamal colony, concerning whom inquiries were made, were reported safe and well.

Ninety Americans, including 25 women and children in Empalme, on the west coast, can leave by train for Nogales, Ariz., whenever they desire, the consular agent at Guaymas reported today.

Official Mexico Silent.

Mexico City, Aug. 21.—Officially Mexico continues silent regarding the negotiations with the representative of the President of the United States, John Lind, although the public has been given to understand that they still are in progress. Mr. Lind has shown no indication of early departure and the conferences between him and Foreign Minister Gamboa which have been held at intervals, serve as a basis for the statement that cordial relations prevail.

A conference between Mr. Lind and the foreign minister was held this afternoon, but as usual, the nature of the conversation was not revealed.

QUANTRELL'S GUERILLAS.

Charles S. Gleed, In Vigorous Speech Reviews Horrors of Civil War.

Lawrence, Kas., Aug. 21.—Quantrell's guerillas when fifty years ago today they sacked Lawrence, and killed nearly 200 of its unarmed inhabitants, committed a deed of murder for which probably no parallel could be found in all the South in civil war days, according to Charles S. Gleed, one of the owners of the Kansas City Journal, and former resident of Lawrence who was the principal speaker at a reunion today of the survivors of the historic Quantrell raid.

Mr. Gleed told how the band of guerillas organized in Missouri, but, consisting largely of Kansas outlaws, burning with fierce hatred for Lawrence, especially because it was the home of man yettlers from New England and the middle Atlantic States, dashed into town at dawn August 21, 1863, and massacred combatants unable to lift a hand in their own defense. Mr. Gleed, with his widowed mother, and a brother, came from New England and settled in Lawrence shortly after the civil war.

Inflammatory appeals published in newspapers along the Missouri and Kansas border in war times were blamed largely by Mr. Gleed for the Lawrence raid.

"These senators were well exemplified by the Squatter Sovereign, published in St. Joseph, Mo. Here is how it talked: "We are of the opinion that if the people of Leavenworth or Weston would hang one or two boat loads of abolitionists it would do more towards establishing peace in Kansas than all the speeches that have been delivered in Congress during the present session."

"William C. Quantrell, the guerilla leader, was a thin, cold blooded man with great personal vanity who assassinated his own people if they got in his way and of the type of man who simply applied, to human beings the practices of a cruel boyhood in the torturing and maiming of animals.

"We cannot forget those who died and those who suffered," Mr. Gleed concluded, "but every drop of blood spilled that day nourished the flowers of liberty."

GREATER THAN BOOKER T.

Colored Parson Audacious But Night in Jail Cured Him.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 21.—Charles Howard, a negro preacher, last night in municipal court interrogated Judge Sutton, "You dont know who you are fixing to try, do you?" Breathless silence followed the audacious question. Howard, who was arraigned for beating his stepdaughter, a girl about 15 years of age, with a stick in a merciless manner, was decidedly angry. "I don't care who you are, even if you are Booker T. Washington," replied his honor. "I'm greater than Booker T. Washington," declared Howard, and he had the air of one who stood upon his conviction.

There seemed to be plenty of evidence that the preacher had creully treated the girl, and he was sent on to Superior Court. His bond was fixed at $200. "I won't pay a dollar," he emphatically stated, and with little formality the court ordered that Howard's person be held as security for his appearance in the higher court. The preached went to jail in an arrogant spirit. He slept upon the matter, and as things will come about, the slumber soothed his ruffled feelings and the world that smiled at him from beyond the bars this morning took on an altogether different appearance. The "star in prison" immediately began the necessary wire-pulling and friends were chased out for his bond money. He is at liberty until the next term of criminal court.

BITS OF HISTORY

RICHARD III AND HENRY VII

At the Battle of Bosworth Field, August 22, 1485, Richard II was slain and the Earl of Richmond, who had long been impatient for the Crown, was crowned on the battlefield and became Henry VII.

Richard had worn his brilliant crown into battle and had become a shining mark for his foes which cost him his life.

People often parade their jewels or their money and in this way become shining marks for their enemies. Display of wealth by excessive jewel wearing and the exhibition of money is vulgar and dangerous. Well bred persons accumulate wealth quietly and later enjoy it unostentatiously. Are you accumulating?
